MIKE STROUHAL

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH
NINTH SEASON
UNIV. OF SAINT MARY, '03

A native of Kansas City, Kan., Strouhal is a 2003 graduate of the University of Saint Mary in Leavenworth, Kan., with a bachelor's in sports management and coaching. While at Saint Mary, he started four years in baseball, three years in football and began his coaching career as strength and conditioning coach, and a football defensive assistant.

Strouhal is certified through the NSCA and USAW. He has overseen the development of gymnastics, baseball, freshman football, men's track sprinters and jumpers, softball and men's tennis. He has assisted with football, men's and women's basketball, soccer and volleyball, and directed an internship program.

His philosophy is based on improving performance and decreasing injuries. The core objective of his program is to develop athleticism. To assist athletes in reaching this goal, his workouts focus on increasing soft tissue quality, mobility, flexibility, speed, power and strength.

He and his wife Allison were married on May 2, 2009, and reside in Fayetteville.

>> THE RAZORBACK BASEBALL TEAM WORKS OUT IN THE WALKER FAMILY TRAINING CENTER, WHICH IS A 38,000-SQUARE FOOT FACILITY.

>> THE WEIGHT ROOM IS ONE OF THE LARGEST IN THE COUNTRY, AND HAS BEEN STUDIED AND COPIED BY OTHER UNIVERSITIES.

>> THE WEIGHT ROOM IS BROKEN UP INTO A 19,000-SQUARE FOOT WEIGHT ROOM AND A 19,000-SQUARE FOOT CONDITIONING AREA.

>> THE BASEBALL TEAM WILL ALSO HAVE ACCESS TO AN AUXILIARY WEIGHT ROOM AT BAUM STADIUM, WHICH WILL BE COMPLETED BEFORE THE START OF THE 2012 BASEBALL SEASON.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The Razorbacks receive the best injury prevention, treatment and rehabilitation from athletic trainer Corey Wood.

COREY WOOD

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER
FIRST SEASON
EAST CAROLINA, '08

Corey Wood joined the University of Arkansas as part of the athletic training staff in June 2011. Wood spent the previous two years working with Wichita State as a graduate assistant trainer. While working with WSU's baseball team, he was responsible for the Shockers' day-to-day injury prevention and rehabilitation. Wood also served as the host athletic trainer for the 2011 Missouri Valley Conference baseball tournament and was an intern for the WSU strength and conditioning staff for a year.

Prior to WSU, Wood worked as an intern with the Cleveland Indians through their spring training in 2009. He directed the aquatic therapy sessions as well as oversaw the strength activities of the team.

Wood earned his bachelor's degree from East Carolina University in May of 2008 and his master's degree in May of 2011 from Wichita State.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The Razorbacks use a variety of travel modes during the season from charter aircraft to commercial airlines to charter buses.

TRAVEL

The baseball team is involved in many community service efforts throughout the year including reading at local elementary schools, encouraging fitness at the grass roots level and raising money for children during the holiday season.

RAZORBACKS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Razorbacks receive coverage from local, regional and national media outlets throughout the season. In 2011, Arkansas appeared on television a school-record 25 times, including an appearance on the inaugural season of ESPNU's SEC Thursday Night Baseball Game of the Week.

Arkansas Athletic Media Relations

The University of Arkansas Athletic Media Relations Office is located on the north side of Barnhill Arena with office hours from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. You can often reach us at Barnhill after hours, but if not, please leave a message on our voice mail system.

Interview Policy

Please direct all requests for interviews with coaches and players to Chad Crunk. Members of the Arkansas coaching staff are generally available on weekday mornings and are available after games. All Arkansas practices are conducted at Baum Stadium at George Cole Field and are open to the public and media. Razorback players are available for interviews after scheduled practices. Players are not available for interviews on gamedays, except for post-game interviews. Post-game interviews are conducted in the indoor batting cages down the third base line. Arkansas head coach Dave Van Horn will address the media first, followed by the two or three most requested Razorback players. In the event of a double header, the only Arkansas player available between games for interviews is the starting pitcher of game one. The Arkansas clubhouse is off limits to the media at all times.

Credentials

Members of the media should contact Chad Crunk to request season or individual game credentials for Razorback baseball home games. Individual game requests should be made no later than noon (CT) the day before the scheduled contest and should be directed to the Media Relations Office at 479-575-2753 or sent by e-mail to Crunk (mcrunk@uark.edu). Credential requests for away games should be made to the media relations contact of the home team.

E-mail Updates

Members of the media may request to be added to the Arkansas Media Relations baseball e-mail group. Subscribers will receive game notes, game stories and other information. To subscribe, send a request to Chad Crunk. Please identify yourself and your organization in your request as this service is only available to members of the media.

Gameday Media Services

The Arkansas Media Relations staff provides scorecards, rosters, updated statistics and results for each team in the Baum Stadium press box prior to each home game. Box scores, play-by-play and any postgame notes are disseminated approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game. An Associated Press-style game story is also produced by the Media Relations Office. Members of the media may request these stories be sent to their organization via e-mail by contacting a member of the Media Relations Office.

Wireless Internet

The Baum Stadium press box is equipped with wireless internet for use by the media. Media members should log on to the "UA Wireless"network, open their internet browser and enter their email address to gain access to the network.

Live Radio/TV

The University of Arkansas Athletics Department retains all copyrights to its home events. All visiting radio stations must contact Director of Broadcasting Chuck Barrett 48 hours prior to make arrangements. Non-conference opponents may be subject to line charges as well as rights fees. Other stations requesting a phone line should contact SBC directly. Requests for live or tape-delayed television rights should be made in advance, and in writing, to Associate AD for Marketing and Licensing Brian Pracht (bpracht@uark.edu).

IP-Based Streaming

The Arkansas Athletics Department retains all streaming rights for its home events. Shared streams may be provided to opponents on a reciprocating basis. Please contact Director of RazorVision Michelle Glover (mlglover@uark.edu) for any requests for IP-based data, audio or video streaming.

Facilities/Parking

The Arkansas Baseball team conducts all practices and all games at Baum Stadium at George Cole Field. Baum Stadium is located just off Razorback Road south of Martin Luther King, Jr., Boulevard. Game Day parking for the media is located in the parking lot directly in front of the Randal Tyson Track Center behind home plate of Baum Stadium. Only cars with a parking credential will be allowed access to the parking lot.

Photographers

No cameras are allowed on the Baum Stadium playing surface during games. Photographers are encouraged to use the photo wells at the end of each dugout and behind home plate.

2012 Baseball Media Guide

The 2012 edition of the Arkansas Baseball Media Guide was written, typeset and edited by Assistant Media Relations Director Chad Crunk. Layout and design by Chad Crunk and Andrew Reynolds. Covers designed by Andrew Reynolds. Editorial assistance provided by Mary Lynn Gibson, Zack Higbee, Zach Lawson, Phil Pierce, Jeri Thorpe, Kevin Trainor and Jackson Braswell. Thanks to the baseball staff for their input and assistance. Photography by Walt Beazley, Wesley Hitt, Beth Hall, Atlanta Braves/Pouya Dianat, Miles Kennedy/Philadelphia Phillies, Andy Hayt/San Diego Padres, Brad Newton/Texas Rangers, USA Baseball, SportsPix Photo by Frannie Kloza, SportsPix Photo by Matthew Scott, Kevin Clark of University Bus Lines, Lisa Van Horn and the Arkansas Athletic Department archives. For the 21st-consecutive season, every pitch of the Arkansas baseball season can be heard on the Razorback Sports Network from IMG College. The network spans the state of Arkansas and can also be heard in neighboring states as well as across the globe via the internet.

The Razorback Baseball Radio Network is one of the largest collegiate baseball radio networks in the nation. With more than 20 affiliates, Razorback baseball games are never more than a dial away no matter where an Arkansas fan resides.

Chuck Barrett returns to the booth for his 21st season as the network's play-by-play announcer. Barrett has called nearly every pitch since the network's inception in 1992 and his voice has become synonymous with Arkansas baseball. Barrett is joined in the booth by former Arkansas Sports Information Director Rick Schaeffer who returned to Razorback baseball broadcasts in 2001 after a five-year absence. Schaeffer handles color analyst duties for most games but has filled in for the occasional play-by-play spot when Barrett has been unavailable.

Chuck Barrett is in his fifth year as a full-time member of the Arkansas Athletic Department, but his affiliation with the University goes back to 1992.

Arkansas' Director of Broadcasting handles radio play-by-play duties for football, men's basketball and baseball. He is also the host of Bobby Petrino Live, Mike'd Up with Mike Anderson, a speaker at Razorback Club meetings and handles all voice-over work for the athletic department, in addition to other duties.

Barrett, who has been named Arkansas Sportscaster of the Year three times (2007, 2008 and 2010), originally hails from Clarksville, Ark., and has been a part of the Arkansas Razorback Sports Network football radio broadcasts for 18 years in a variety of roles. He became the play-by-play voice of the Arkansas men's basketball team at the start of the 2010-11 season, replacing Mike Nail who held the position for 29 years. He has handled Razorback baseball radio play-by-play for the past 20 seasons.

Prior to joining the Arkansas staff, he was a radio talk show host for Citadel Broadcasting for 15 years.

Barrett, who is married to Precious, is a board member of the Brandon Burlsworth Foundation.

2012 RAZORBACKS

Head Coach
10th Season - Arkansas, 1988

How do you replace a retiring legend? Look to one of the many disciples that the legend inspired and in Arkansas' case that was Dave Van Horn. The Razorbacks faced this dilemma in June of 2002 as it looked to fill the vacancy left by Norm DeBriyn's departure. What Van Horn has done in his nine seasons as the skipper of the Razorbacks has the Hogs on course to reach new levels of achievement and has secured Arkansas' spot among the elite baseball programs in the nation.

In what many people saw as a rebuilding season in 2011, Van Horn guided the Razorbacks to the program's fourth SEC Western Division championship and to the NCAA Tournament for the 10th straight year. After posting a 38-20 overall record through the Southeastern Conference Tournament, the Razorbacks were sent to the NCAA Tempe Regional hosted by Arizona State. After dropping its opening game of the regional, Arkansas rallied to reach the regional championship game before eventually falling to Arizona State. Arkansas finished the season with a 40-22 record, the program's third straight season of at least 40 wins and the 17th 40-win season in program history. The Razorbacks closed the season ranked in the top 25 of every major poll and had an RPI of 14.

With power numbers down across the board in college baseball in 2011, Van Horn's offense used the stolen base as one of its main offensive weapons. The Razorbacks finished the season with 122 stolen bases in 149 attempts, leading the SEC and ranking sixth in the country. The stolen base total ranked as the sixth highest in school history and the most since the 1999 season when Arkansas stole 136 bases. On the mound, the Razorbacks had one of the top pitching staffs in the country as the Razorback hurlers finished with a team ERA of 3.20, which ranked 27th in the country. Arkansas finished the season 14th in hits allowed per nine innings, giving up 7.86 hits per game. The 3.20 team ERA was Arkansas' best since 1982 when the Razorbacks had a 3.00 team ERA.

Several Arkansas players received postseason accolades following the 2011 season. A trio of rookies – Barrett Astin, Dominic Ficociello and Nolan Sanburn – were named freshman All-Americans, while pitcher DJ Baxendale earned All-Region honors. Baxendale was also named second-team All-SEC, while Ficociello was chosen for the SEC All-Freshman and All-Defensive teams. James McCann was named the league's Scholar-Athlete of the Year, becoming just the second Razorback to win the award.

Following the 2011 season, Van Horn had an opportunity that many coaches dream of, serving on the coaching staff of Team USA. Van Horn, along with Razorback players DJ Baxendale, Dominic Ficociello, Matt Reynolds and Ryne Stanek spent their summer with Team USA's Collegiate National Team and helped the squad to an 11-2-1 record, including beating Team Japan in a best-of-five series to end the summer.

Van Horn led Arkansas to the NCAA Tournament for the ninth consecutive year in 2010. The Razorbacks also reached the Super Regional round in back-to-back years for the first time in program history. On the strength of a 40-18 record after the SEC Tournament, the Hogs were selected to host an NCAA Regional for the fifth time in school history. Arkansas advanced to the Super Regionals with a 7-2 victory over Washington State in a winner-take-all regional championship game. In the Super Regionals, the Razorbacks went toe-to-toe with the tournament's top seed Arizona State on its home field. Arkansas lost a pair of 12-inning heartbreakers to finish the season with a 43-21 record.

Van Horn also achieved three coaching milestones during the 2010 regular season. The Razorback skipper picked up his 300th win at Arkansas on April 9 in an 8-3 win over Mississippi State. On February 27 in a 10-8 win over Troy, Van Horn earned his 600th win as a Division I head coach. He recorded career win No. 900 on May 21 in a 4-3 victory at Vanderbilt.

Arkansas also set a new school record for attendance in 2010 as 292,734 fans saw a game at Baum Stadium, besting the previous record of 266,270 set during the 2007 season. The Razorbacks finished second in the country in both total attendance and average attendance (7,704 average).

For the second time in his Razorback coaching career, Van Horn and his team made the ultimate postseason push and collected the program's sixth trip to Omaha for the 2009 College World Series. Rebounding from a late-season slump, Arkansas advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Baseball Tournament before earning its eighth-consecutive berth into an NCAA Regional. Supported by their fans, the Razorbacks hit the road and swept their way through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, besting Washington State and national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State along the way. In Omaha, Arkansas won two games and tied for a third-place national finish, equaling the 1985 team for the second-best finish in program history.

The 2009 regular season had its share of highlights, too. The Razorbacks jumped out to an 8-0 start in SEC play for the first time in program history. The club achieved another first when Collegiate Baseball released its April 6 poll with Arkansas ranked No. 1, the first top ranking by any publication in program history. The Razorbacks faced Arizona State in a midweek series that same week, the first No. 1 vs. No. 1 matchup at Baum Stadium. Arkansas solidified its top billing by knocking off the Sun Devils in both games.

In the finale against Arizona State, the Razorbacks had the support of a then-Baum Stadium-record 11,014 fans. That number is a significant reminder of the traditionally strong attendance figures for the Arkansas baseball team. In 2009, the Razorbacks finished No. 2 in national attendance with an average of 7,906 fans per game.

The highly decorated coach has both individual and team honors throughout his 23-year coaching resume beginning at Texarkana (Texas) Community College all the way through the present. Individually, he has been named national coach of the year twice, regional coach of the year twice and conference coach of the year four times. His teams have made four College World Series appearances, won five outright conference championships, a Division II National Championship and made 13 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Regional Tournament.

To prove his long-term success, Van Horn made history on March 22, 2008, when he managed the Razorbacks to a come-from-behind 14-13 win over LSU. The victory gave Van Horn his 800th career win and earned him a place on the College Baseball Foundation's National All-Star Lineup. In his 23 years of coaching, Van Horn has amassed a 944-441 (.682) record and is 359-201 (.641) at Arkansas.

Since joining the Razorbacks as head coach, Van Horn has led his teams to a SEC Championship, three SEC Western Division titles, nine NCAA Tournament berths and two College World Series appearances. His players have earned 14 All-America honors, 15 All-SEC nods, 78 SEC Academic Honor Roll spots and 10 Capital One Academic All-District accolades. Not resting on his laurels, Van Horn has kept his competitive juices flowing as he seeks to bring a national championship to his alma mater.

Not only have his players flourished in collegiate baseball, but several have gone on to solid professional baseball careers. More than 100 former players have signed professional contracts, including former Razorback standouts Zack Cox, Brett Eibner, Craig Gentry, Logan Forsythe, James McCann and Jess Todd. Todd was called up by the St. Louis Cardinals, Gentry was promoted to the big leagues by the Texas Rangers and Forsythe was called up to the majors by the San Diego Padres. Other past stars for Van Horn include Ken Harvey (Kansas City Royals), Jamal Strong (Seattle Mariners) and Dan Johnson (Oakland Athletics).

When Van Horn took over the Razorback program prior to the 2003 season, he inherited a team that lacked depth and was thought of as weak within the SEC. Changing the culture of the team immediately, Van Horn guided his inaugural squad to both the SEC and NCAA Tournaments. His team was ranked in all four major baseball polls throughout the year and picked up series wins at No. 6 South Carolina and No. 5 Auburn.

The success of the program and Van Horn's no-nonsense approach to his team has endeared him to the Razorback faithful. The Arkansas fan base has grown steadily since Van Horn was given the reins of the program and three renovations have been completed at Baum Stadium since his arrival to accommodate the growing numbers. Over the past eight seasons, Baum Stadium, already one of the nicest collegiate baseball parks in the nation, has grown with the addition of nearly 5,000 chair back seats, 32 luxury boxes and now has a capacity of 10,737.

One of the things that Van Horn is known for is recruiting fundamental players and molding them into the stars of tomorrow. In his first season with Arkansas, only two Razorbacks were taken in the Major League Baseball first year player draft. That number has grown significantly over the years with a high water mark of nine taken after the 2007 season. Three of Arkansas' stars, Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008) and Zack Cox (2010) were selected in the first round of the draft and 18 have been picked in the first 10 rounds since he took over, with James McCann being the most recent early round pick after going to the Detroit Tigers in the second round of the 2011 MLB Draft.

The Razorbacks have been successful in every facet of the game over the past nine seasons. Hitting was the focal point in some seasons while pitching dominated in others, but Van Horn knows that to accomplish his ultimate goal it takes a total team effort.

In 2007, Arkansas won the Razorbacks' third SEC Western Division title when they went 18-12 in league play. The Hogs were 43-21 overall, hosted their fourth NCAA Regional and finished the season No. 18 in the final Collegiate Baseball rankings.

That team was one of Van Horn's best in terms of individual pitching prospects. Two-time first-team All-American Nick Schmidt was taken by the San Diego Padres in the first round of the MLB draft (No. 23 overall). Right-handers Jess Todd and Duke Welker were each taken in the second round by St. Louis and Pittsburgh, respectively. Todd also earned second-team All-America honors.

The excitement around Baum Stadium that season also brought the Razorback nation out in record numbers. Arkansas fans set the school record for average attendance while also setting the then-NCAA mark for average attendance in a season with 8,089 tickets sold per game.

Schmidt's success on the mound was a continuation of his 2006 season when the lefty was named the SEC Pitcher of the Year by the league coaches. The Razorbacks went 39-21 that season and hosted another NCAA Regional.

A hot start to the 2005 season had the Razorbacks ranked as high as No. 5 nationally as they opened the year 20-2, but a rash of bad luck sidetracked what was shaping up to be a magical year. Despite the setbacks, the Razorbacks did come just a breath away from pulling one of the nation's biggest upsets as it won its first two games at the NCAA Austin Regional. Arkansas would go all the way to the final game of the regional before losing to eventual national champion, Texas.

Arkansas' 2004 season was one for the history books as the Hogs won 45 games, shared the SEC regular-season title, hosted NCAA Regional and Super Regional games and made its fifth appearance at the College World Series. The following all came true despite the Razorbacks getting picked to finish last in the SEC's Western Division by the league coaches. Along the way, Arkansas won 19 SEC games, swept a weekend series in Baton Rouge, La., against No. 2 LSU and dispatched a tough Florida State team in the Super Regional in two games. The Razorback sweep of LSU was the first time since 1988 that the Tigers had been swept at home by a conference opponent. The Razorback accomplishments led to a top 10 finish in all four major collegiate baseball polls, including a program high No. 6 ranking by Baseball America.

Prior to taking the helm of the Arkansas program on June 21, 2002, Van Horn enjoyed a very successful five-year run as the head coach at the University of Nebraska. In a short period of time, he built a once-fledgling program into a national powerhouse. Prior to his arrival, the Cornhuskers had made just four postseason appearances in 108 years of baseball history. With their new skipper on the bench, Nebraska went to four NCAA Tournaments and two College World Series.

During his stint with Nebraska, Van Horn amassed a 214-92 (.699) record, won three consecutive Big 12 Tournament titles and earned Nebraska's first regular-season conference title in 51 years. He was twice named the American Baseball

Coaches Association's Midwest Region Coach of the Year and posted back-to-back 50-win seasons in 2000 and 2001. In his second season with Nebraska, Van Horn guided his club to its first NCAA Tournament berth in 18 years after it won the Big 12 Tournament, its first title of any kind in nearly 50 years.

Similar to what he has done at Arkansas, Nebraska's players shined with Van Horn at the helm. The Cornhuskers had at least one player named finalist for national player of the year honors in three seasons including a pair of Howser Award Finalists. Seven players were named first-team All-America and 26 earned All-Big 12 accolades including a school record nine in 2000. The Cornhuskers also excelled in the classroom with 30 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big 12 selections (21 first-teamers) and seven players named academic all-district.

Prior to his move to Nebraska, Van Horn coached three seasons with Northwestern State in Natchitoches, La., his first foray as a head coach in Division I. He went 106-65 (.620) in those three seasons and won two Southland Conference regular-season titles (1995 and 1997). Each title also earned him Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors.

Van Horn spent one season at the Division II level, coaching Central Missouri State in 1994 and his effects there were awe-inspiring. Taking the reins of the program with just six weeks of preparation before the season, the Mules got off to a quick start by winning 12 of its first 13 games and eventually put together a 21-game winning streak. CMSU won the MIAA Conference Championship and the tournament title before eventually dominating at the NCAA Championships to win the school's first national championship. In 2000, Central Missouri honored Van Horn and his 1994 team by inducting them into the Central Missouri State Hall of Fame.

The storied career of Van Horn as a head coach began with a humble start at Texarkana (Texas) Community College in 1989. In five seasons with the Bulldogs, Van Horn guided Texarkana to a 214-72 (.748) record. He set records for single season wins in four of his five seasons beginning with his first and guided his 1992 squad to the NJCAA Texas Eastern Conference Championships.

Prior to his first stint as a head coach, Van Horn worked with the man he replaced at Arkansas, Coach DeBriyn, for four seasons as a graduate assistant, assisting the Razorbacks to a pair of College World Series. The Hogs were 184-71-1 (.721) while he was a GA and made the NCAA Regional Tournament in each of his four seasons.

Van Horn's playing career was spent in the infield where he was a highly touted player. Two seasons at McLennan (Texas) Community College earned him All-America, Region 5 Player of the Year, all-conference and all-region honors. The standout defensive third baseman was drafted by the Chicago White Sox, but instead Van Horn transferred to Arkansas.

In one year with the Razorbacks, Van Horn earned All-Southwest Conference honors as well as the team's most valuable player and SWC Newcomer of the Year accolades. Following his junior year, the Atlanta Braves selected Van Horn in the 10th round of the 1982 draft. Van Horn would spend three seasons with the Braves organization before returning to Fayetteville to begin his coaching career.

Van Horn is married to the former Karen Lee. The couple has two daughters, Hollan (18) and Mariel (14).

Todd Butler joined the Razorback staff in July of 2005 and is known around the country for his ability to attract the best talent and develop strong hitters. The Razorbacks use those talents to their fullest as Butler serves as the hitting instructor, outfield coach and recruiting coordinator. Butler is in his seventh year on the Razorback coaching staff and is in his 15th year as an assistant coach in the SEC.

In 2011, Butler helped guide the Razorbacks to an SEC Western Division title, a 10th straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament and the 17th 40-win season in program history, including the third consecutive season of at least 40 wins. With power numbers down throughout college baseball, the Razorbacks found another way to produce runs, the stolen base. The Razorbacks led the SEC with 122 stolen bases, which were the sixth most in school history, and were only caught stealing 27 times, an 82 percent success rate.

The Razorbacks were not without some offensive stars in 2011. Freshman Dominic Ficociello was a consensus freshman All-American after leading the Razorbacks with a .335 batting average and 50 RBI. Juniors James McCann and Jarrod McKinney also produced career-best numbers at the plate. McCann hit .306 with six homers and 38 RBI, while McKinney hit .301 with two homers and 20 RBI. Both were selected in the 2011 MLB Draft with McCann going in the second round to the Detroit Tigers, while McKinney was taken in the 31st round by the Houston Astros. Collin Kuhn, who hit .282 with seven homers and 41 RBI, and Kyle Robinson, who hit .286 with a team-high 10 homers and 49 RBI, were both drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the 2011 draft. Kuhn was a 17th round selection, while Robinson was taken in the 28th round.

The 2010 Arkansas offense was one of the most prolific in school history. The Hogs finished the season with a .306 team batting average, the first time since the 2005 season that the Razorbacks had closed a year with a better than .300 team batting average. Arkansas also set a school record with 92 home runs hit during the 2010 season. This high-powered offense helped the team to a 43-21 record and a trip to the NCAA Super Regionals for the second-straight year, marking the first consecutive trips to a Super Regional in program history.

A pair of Butler's pupils were honored with All-America honors following the 2010 season. Zack Cox set a new school record with a .429 batting average to go along with nine home runs and 48 RBI, while Brett Eibner hit .333 with a team-leading 22 homers and 71 RBI. Both players were early-round selections in the 2010 MLB Draft. Cox was the sixth first-round pick in school history after being taken by the St. Louis Cardinals with the 25th overall pick. Eibner was selected in the second round with the 54th overall pick by the Kansas City Royals. In addition, Andy Wilkins, who finished his carer with a .307 batting average, 42 home runs and 165 RBI, was drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the fifth round of the 2010 draft.

In 2009, the Razorbacks used a combination of power and team speed to advance to the College World Series for the sixth time in program history. The hot-swinging Razorbacks blasted their way through the Norman Regional, on their way to producing 38 runs in the three-game round. Arkansas went on to add 16 runs to its postseason total in a sweep of Florida State in the Tallahassee Super Regional. The hitting barrage carried over into the Hogs' first game in Omaha with 10 runs against Cal State Fullerton.

In 2007, Arkansas hit .288 and finished second in the Southeastern Conference with 75 home runs on its way to capturing the SEC Western Division title and advancing to the championship game of the SEC Tournament.

During Butler's 18-year career as an NCAA Division I assistant or head coach, he has constructed 10 recruiting classes that ranked among the nation's top 10 including five in his six years with the Razorbacks. The 2010 recruiting class was ranked eighth by Baseball America, while his 2008 recruiting class ranked fourth by Collegiate Baseball. Both the 2005 and 2006 classes were ranked 10th by Baseball America. In 2005, the publication tabbed Arkansas' recruiting class as the nation's top junior college collection of players and some of those players have already made their mark in professional baseball as right-handed pitchers Jess Todd and Duke Welker were both drafted in the second round of the 2007 Major League Baseball Draft. Todd ascended quickly through the St. Louis Cardinals' organization and was called up to the big leagues in June 2009.

On the field, Butler has also made a huge impact with the Razorbacks as his teams have produced five of the top 10 home run hitting clubs in 85 years of Arkansas history. In Butler's first season the Hogs belted 65 home runs which ranked sixth all-time. Since then, the 2007 team blasted 75 home runs in 64 games, the 2008 team hit 77 in 58 contests, the 2009 team hit 80 in 65 games, while the 2010 team belted 92 homers in 64 games, an average of 1.44 homers per game.

The 2009 Razorbacks tallied 80 home runs which tied for the second-highest mark in program history. Arkansas set a new program record with 92 round-trippers during the 2010 season. Over the last five seasons, Arkansas has made waves in seven team season statistical categories including runs, doubles, home runs, RBI, walks, total bases and stolen bases.

While his influence on the Razorbacks as a whole has been profound, it's the work he has accomplished with several individuals that paints a much brighter picture. Danny Hamblin was a terror at the plate during the 2006 and 2007 seasons as he produced some of the biggest single-season home run totals ever. Hamblin connected for 17 home runs as a junior after hitting just 17 his first two seasons at Arkansas. Despite getting drafted by the Oakland A's, Hamblin returned to Arkansas for his senior season and slammed another 22 home runs, the second-highest single-season total in school history. His 57 career home runs are the most by any individual in Razorback history.

Another Butler disciple was Logan Forsythe who went from a .189 hitter as a freshman to .347 as a sophomore and .351 as a junior. Forsythe flourished with Butler's guidance and earned first-team All-SEC honors after his junior season and was drafted in the first round of the MLB draft by the San Diego Padres thanks to his skills at the plate and defensive prowess. He was tabbed as the No. 5 prospect in the Padres organization in December 2009.

One of the most experienced and talented assistant coaches in college baseball, Butler came to Fayetteville after two assistant coaching stints (eight total years) at the University of Alabama and three years as the head coach at his alma mater, McNeese State.

In 2001, Butler took over as head coach at McNeese State in his hometown of Lake Charles, La., where he compiled a 90-83 (.520) overall record in three seasons. In his last season at McNeese, he guided the Cowboys to the 2003 Southland Conference Tournament championship, their first in 10 years.

The win at the conference tournament secured just the fourth NCAA Regional bid in McNeese State's history and the Cowboys were sent to the Houston Regional at Rice's Reckling Park. Butler's team gave eventual national champion Rice all they could handle before falling to the Owls, 3-2, in 10 innings. Ole Miss eliminated the Cowboys from the 64-team field the following day.

Prior to assuming the head coaching duties at McNeese State, Butler served as the hitting instructor and outfielders coach during his first stint with the Crimson Tide from 1995-2000. He helped guide Alabama to six NCAA Regional appearances as well as three trips to the College World Series in 1996, 1997 and 1999. The Tide advanced to the SEC Tournament in all six of those seasons, claiming the SEC Tournament title in 1995, 1996, 1997 and 1999.

Butler also earned his reputation as one of the country's top recruiters during those first six years at Alabama. He helped the Crimson Tide land some of the nation's top talent as Alabama recorded three-consecutive top 10 recruiting classes. The Tide's 1999 freshman class was ranked as the fourth-best in the country and still ranks as the highest ranked class in school history.

Under Butler's leadership, the Crimson Tide became one of the most feared offensive clubs in America. Alabama's 1997 team led the NCAA in four offensive categories, including runs scored (679), total hits (860) and total bases (1,571) while finishing second in home runs (160).

In addition, the Crimson Tide won the NCAA statistical championship for highest slugging percentage (.621), eclipsing the previous school record (.521 in 1983) by 100 points.

Butler returned to Alabama as an assistant baseball coach on June 26, 2003. He spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons on the Tide staff as the recruiting coordinator, hitting instructor and infield coach, while also coaching first base.

He continued to showcase his ability to sign some of the top recruiting classes in the country upon his return to the Alabama bench. Alabama's 2005 freshman class was rated 10th in the fall of 2004 in Baseball America's Dandy Dozen College recruiting classes.

Before joining Alabama for the first time, Butler served as an assistant coach at McNeese State in 1993 and 1994. He was an assistant coach at Blinn Junior College in Brenham, Texas, in 1992, where he helped the Buccaneers advance to the NJCAA World Series.

Butler's coaching career began as a student-assistant coach at McNeese State, where he earned his bachelor's degree in liberal studies in 1991.

He spent two summers coaching in the Alaska Baseball League. His first stint in Alaska was as an assistant coaching job in 1991 with the Kenai Peninsula Oilers, helping them to the NBC World Series. He then coached for the Anchorage Glacier Pilots in 1992.

Butler played his college ball at McNeese State and Oklahoma. A team captain for the Sooners in 1988, Butler still holds the OU single-season record for stolen bases with 46 steals in 1988, including 26 consecutive successful stolen base attempts. Butler was a third-team All-American and earned All-Big Eight Conference honors in 1988.

Butler was born on July 23, 1966, in Alexandria, La., and is married to the former Melissa Borrel. The couple has two daughters, Caitlyn (14) and Kendyll (10).

Beginning his 16th overall season with the Razorbacks, Dave Jorn has made a lasting and profound impression on the baseball program. In his second stint with Arkansas, Jorn is beginning his 10th season as the pitching coach with head coach Dave Van Horn

Jorn's unmistakable impact on the Razorback baseball program can not only be seen on the pitcher's mound but in the locker room and on the draft boards of every Major League Baseball team.

During two assistant coaching stints in Fayetteville, Jorn has been a part of 627 wins, four trips to the College World Series and 14 NCAA Tournament berths. In addition, the Hogs have enjoyed 10 40-win seasons, two 50-win campaigns and his Razorback pitchers have tossed five no-hit games.

Jorn returned to Arkansas in 2003 after a 14-year career in Major League Baseball as a coach for the New York Mets, New York Yankees and Arizona Diamondbacks. Prior to working in the pros, he spent six years with the Razorbacks under legendary Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn. In his second tour of duty with the Razorbacks, he has revived Arkansas' pitching fortunes once again.

Jorn's pitching staff in 2011 was one of the best in recent memory for Arkansas. The Razorback pitchers finished the season with a team ERA of 3.20, ranking 27th nationally. Arkansas' team ERA was the eighth-best in program history and the best since 1982 when Arkansas pitchers posted a 3.00 ERA. The Razorback pitching staff combined to allow just 7.86 hits per nine innings, which ranked them 14th in the country. The Razorback bullpen was particularly strong in 2011, setting a new single-season school record with 20 saves and posting a 20-8 record with a 2.51 ERA.

Three of Jorn's pupils earned conference and national recognition following the 2011 season. Staff ace DJ Baxendale was named second-team All-SEC and earned All-Region honors after finishing his junior season with a 10-2 record, three saves and a 1.58 ERA. Baxendale was the first Razorback pitcher to record double-digit wins in a season since Nick Schmidt in 2007 and posted the fifth-lowest ERA in program history. Freshmen pitchers Barrett Astin and Nolan Sanburn each earned freshman All-America honors following the season. Astin appeared in a team-high 27 games and had a 5-2 record with three saves and 2.72 ERA. Sanburn led Arkansas with eight saves and compiled a 2-4 record with a 3.62 ERA.

In 2010, the Arkansas pitching staff was one of the best in the Southeastern Conference. The Razorback rotation finished the year with a 3.93 ERA, finishing third in the conference and posting the first sub-4.00 ERA since the 2007 season. Arkansas pitchers also posted the second-best strikeout to walk ratio in school history at 2.92, fanning 551 batters and issuing just 189 bases on balls.

The ace of the Razorback pitching staff in 2010 was Drew Smyly. The southpaw finished the year with a 9-1 record and a 2.80 ERA. He was recognized for his stellar season by earning All-SEC honors. Smyly was drafted in the second round of the 2010 MLB Draft by the Detroit Tigers with the 68th overall pick.

Jorn's 2007 starting rotation was possibly the best three-man rotation in college baseball and one of the best in school history. Nick Schmidt, who garnered All-America honors for the second-consecutive season, anchored a rotation that included junior college transfers Jess Todd and Duke Welker. The trio combined for 27 wins, 315 innings, a .217 opponent batting average and 319 strikeouts.

Under Jorn's guidance, Schmidt finished his three-year Razorback career as one of the most-decorated players to ever don an Arkansas uniform. His 11-3 record and career-low 2.69 ERA in 2007 cumulated a career that produced a 28-8 record, 2.83 ERA and a school record 345 strikeouts. Schmidt also earned SEC Pitcher of the Year honors in 2006.

Schmidt was drafted in the first round of the 2007 Major League Baseball Draft by the San Diego Padres with the 23rd overall selection. He became the first Razorback to be drafted in the first round since 1999 and just the fourth first-rounder in school history.

Jorn's trio of starting pitchers were all selected by the 82nd overall pick in the second round of the 2007 MLB Draft. Welker went with the 68th pick to the Pittsburgh Pirates while Todd was taken No. 82 by the St. Louis Cardinals. Both Schmidt and Todd were picked as first-team All-SEC selections by league coaches. Todd also earned second-team All-American honors with a 9-3 record, two saves, two complete games and 128 strikeouts, which tied for the third-most in a single season in school history. During the summer of 2009, Todd was called up by the St. Louis Cardinals to join the big-league team.

Jorn's 2007 staff became just the third Arkansas pitching staff in the last 16 years to have an ERA below 4.00. All three of those teams have been under the guidance of Jorn, including the 2004 staff that posted a 3.87 ERA and the 2006 group whose 3.64 ERA was the lowest since 1990.

The Hogs' 2007 pitchers recorded a school-record 565 strikeouts in 569 innings of work for 8.9 strikeouts per nine innings that ranked fifth nationally. The staff also garnered a 2.58 strikeout-to-walk ratio and held opponents to a .249 batting average. The 2006 staff, led by Schmidt, posted the 13th-best team ERA (3.64) in school history. It was the lowest ERA in 15 years. The last Hogs' staff to post a better ERA was the 1991 team that had a 3.59 ERA.

In 2006, Schmidt finished 9-3 with 145 strikeouts and was named the league's top pitcher by the coaches. His 145 strikeouts were also the second-most in a single season in Arkansas history. Jorn also molded lefty Devin Collis into one of the league's top closers, finishing with nine saves. Shaun Seibert also came into his own under Jorn's guidance, posting a 2.79 ERA that ranked second in the SEC.

In 2005, Arkansas posted a 4.05 ERA and rode the strong arms of Charley Boyce and freshman All-American Schmidt to 39 wins and a NCAA Regional berth. Seibert and Schmidt were both named to the Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-America team for their standout efforts.

In 2004, the Hogs claimed a share of the SEC overall title and advanced to the College World Series for the first time in 15 seasons. Under Jorn's guidance, Razorback hurlers posted the lowest team ERA since 1991 with a 3.87 mark. Jorn helped Boyce post a 10-3 record and a 3.20 ERA in 2004, while part-time starter Jay Sawatski also posted a 10-3 record with a 3.38 ERA. The Hogs' bullpen was equally effective under Jorn's instruction in 2004 as the relievers recorded a 3.72 ERA with a 25-11 record and 16 saves, one shy of tying the team record of 17.

Jorn first served as the Hogs' pitching coach from 1983-88. During Jorn's time on DeBriyn's staff, Arkansas posted a record of 268-108 (.713), competed in five NCAA Regionals and earned trips to the 1985 and the 1987 College World Series. Six different Razorback pitchers earned All-Southwest Conference honors during that span including Kevin Campbell ('84), Tim Deitz ('85), Bobby Edwards ('87, '88), Fred Farwell ('85), Steve Parker ('86) and Tim Peters ('87).

Van Horn and Jorn coached together on the UA staff from 1985-88. Van Horn was a graduate assistant while Jorn was in the midst of his first stint as UA's pitching coach.

Jorn left the Razorback program in January of 1989 to work in player development in the New York Yankees' minor league system. He was the pitching coach at Class A Prince William, Va., in the Carolina League in 1989, helping the Cannons to a league title. Jorn then served in the same position in the Class A South Atlantic League in Greensboro, N.C., in 1990. He spent two years (1991-92) as the pitching coach at the Yankees' Class AA affiliate in Albany, N.Y., helping them to a league championship in 1991.

He joined the New York Mets' organization in 1993 and worked with their Class A South Atlantic League affiliate in Columbia, S.C., in 1993-94. Jorn transferred to Kingsport, Tenn., to serve as pitching coach for the Mets in the Class A rookie league from 1995-96, winning a league title in 1996. He then returned to Columbia, S.C., for the 1997 season.

In 1998, he was hired by the Arizona Diamondbacks and worked as the pitching coach in Lethbridge, Ontario, Canada, in the organization's short season Class A league club in the Pioneer League.

Jorn spent the next two seasons (1999-2000) with the Diamondbacks' Class A Midwest League affiliate in South Bend, Ind. He served as the pitching coach in 1999 before being elevated to the role of manager in 2000.

Jorn rejoined the Yankees' organization in 2001 as a scout covering the Midwest. He was responsible for scouting in the states of Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota. Following the 2001 draft, he managed the Yankees' Class A short season team playing in the New York-Penn League in Staten Island, N.Y.

Prior to his initial tenure at Arkansas, he was the pitching coach at Lurleen B. Wallace (Ala.) Junior College for one season.

Jorn and Melinda Gatling were married in April 2007. They have two daughters, Molly Kuhl (26), who was married to Kaleb Kuhl in December 2009, and Maggie Gatling (19). Jorn also has a daughter, Christina, and twin grandchildren Kellen and Alexis (9).

Director of Baseball Operations
5th Season - Arkansas, 2005

Once the foundation of a stellar Razorback infield, Clay Goodwin is now the cornerstone of an even better Razorback coaching staff as he starts his fifth season with the Arkansas coaching staff as its Director of Baseball Operations.

In his capacity as the Director of Operations, Goodwin coordinates many of the behind-the-scenes aspects of the Razorback baseball program as he works in conjunction with the Arkansas coaching staff. Some of his duties include acting as an on-campus recruiting official, coordinating all official and unofficial visits to Arkansas' campus, assisting with team travel and ordering inventory of all equipment needs.

Prior to his appointment to Director of Operations, Goodwin spent the 2006 season as the Razorbacks' fifth-year student assistant coach. He assisted the UA coaching staff with practices, day-to-day administrative duties and on game days. He helped hitting coach Todd Butler with hitting instruction while assisting with the Hogs' infield. He then served as a team manager for Arkansas during the 2007 season.

Goodwin was an outstanding player for the Razorbacks over four seasons and because of that his name is littered throughout the Arkansas record book. An excellent defensive third baseman, he was also known to have an effective bat as he finished his career with a .297 average, 49 doubles, 12 home runs and 127 RBI. At the conclusion of his four years, he ranked eighth in career at bats (750), tied for ninth in career hits (223) and tied for fifth in career singles (157). Goodwin appeared in 202 games as a Razorback, making 193 starts.

He hit a team-best .332 as a sophomore and followed that with a team-leading .319 average as a junior. His run production spiked as a senior with a career-best five home runs, 17 doubles and 42 RBI. He also finished his career with a .934 fielding percentage at third base and 408 assists.

Goodwin was born on Oct. 1, 1981, and graduated from the University of Arkansas in May of 2005 with a degree in kinesiology. He completed his master's degree in the fall of 2006 at the University of Arkansas in workforce development. Goodwin is married to the former Jill Johnson. The couple has one daughter, Caroline (3).

Baseball Staff Associate/Camp Coordinator
9th Season - Arkansas, 2004

Kelly Moore is in her ninth year working for Coach Dave Van Horn in the Arkansas baseball office and her 10th year working for the University of Arkansas Athletic Department.

Her duties include coordinating team travel, administration of the equipment budget, organizing the recruiting databases and the day-to-day operations of the baseball office.

A native of Fort Smith, Ark., Moore also serves as the coordinator for the very successful Dave Van Horn Razorback Baseball Camps.

Born August 10, 1978, she holds a bachelor's degree in adult education from the University of Arkansas and is married to Max Moore, a native of Fayetteville, Ark. The couple has two children, Maddux (4) and Addi Grace (2), and are expecting a third in the spring of 2012.

Volunteer Assistant Coach
2nd Season - Arkansas, 2011

Brian Walker is in his second season on the Razorback coaching staff and in his first year as the team's volunteer assistant coach. Walker works primarily with the Razorback catchers.

In his first season on the Arkansas coaching staff, Walker mentored James McCann, one of the top catchers in collegiate baseball. McCann, who was named a semifinalist for the Johnny Bench Award, enjoyed his best season at the plate, finishing the year with a .306 batting average with six homers and 38 RBI. Defensively, McCann had a .992 fielding percentage, comitting just four errors, while throwing out 20 would-be base stealers. McCann was a second round draft pick of the Detroit Tigers in the 2011 MLB Draft.

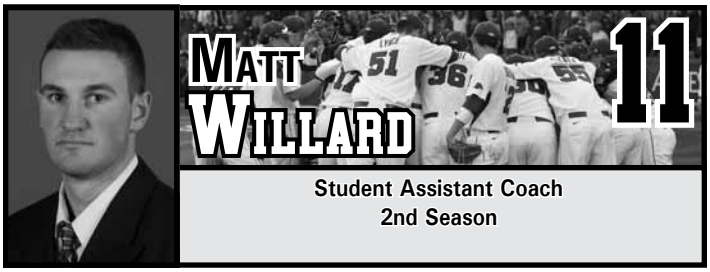

Walker joined the Arkansas coaching staff after spending four years in the Anaheim Angels minor league system. Walker closed the 2010 season with the Angels' triple-A squad, Salt Lake City. In six games with Salt Lake City, he hit .300 with six RBIs.

A three-year letterwinner at Arkansas, Walker played in 164 games, including 145 starts, and hit .260 with 26 home runs and 98 RBI. Walker was stellar in the field for the Razorbacks, committing just five errors over his three-year career for a .996 fielding percentage. He was drafted in the 29th round of the 2007 MLB Draft by the Anaheim Angels.

A native of Tulsa, Okla., Walker graduated from the University of Arkansas with a degree in kinesiology. Walker and his wife, McKenzi, have two children, Claire (3) and Joseph (3).

Student Assistant Coach
2nd Season

Matt Willard is in his second season as a student assistant coach where he works with the Razorback infielders.

Willard returned to Arkansas after playing three years in the minor leagues in the Cleveland Indians system. Willard most recently played in 2009, where he split time between single-A Lake County and single-A Kinston.

A two-year letterwinner as a Razorback, Willard saw time in 105 games and made 89 starts. He finished his collegiate career with a .289 batting average, two home runs and 36 RBI. Willard was selected in the 49th round of the 2007 MLB Draft by the Cleveland Indians.

A native of Philadelphia, Willard is majoring in marketing. Willard resides in Fayetteville.

The RBI Girls have entertained Razorback baseball fans since the 1997 season, performing dance routines and leading cheers from the top of the dugouts prior to all home games and between innings. They have become an integral part of the game day experience at Baum Stadium. The RBI Girls are accompanied at all baseball games and events by Ribby, the Arkansas baseball mascot. This year's Ribby is James Newton. The RBI Girls are coached by Brooke Bailey and Jean Nail.

BAUM STADIUM

BAUM STADIUM

When discussing the best college baseball facilities in the country, Baum Stadium is consistently among one of the first places mentioned. With room for more than 10,000 spectators, an impeccable playing surface and amenities that rival most minor league ballparks, it is the crown jewel of the collegiate ranks. Of course the physical properties of Baum Stadium are only a portion of the baseball experience with the remainder in the form of fans that flock to the corner of Razorback Road and 15th Street to watch their Razorbacks take on all comers.

Officially named Baum Stadium at George Cole Field at its dedication on May 3, 1996, the facility derives its name from primary backers as well as from the history of Razorback Baseball. Arkansas' facility prior to Baum Stadium was George Cole Field, and the new park preserved the tradition with its current name.

In 1998, Baum Stadium received a special honor when it was named the nation's number one facility in Baseball America's poll of best college facilities. Five years later it took second in the same poll, cementing its legacy as one of the best facilities in the nation. Since its construction, Arkansas officials have received numerous solicitations by coaches and administrators from across the country for blueprints and tours of the Razorbacks' home ballpark in an attempt to capture some of its charm. Even though Baum Stadium has been replicated to some degree, no other place in the country has the atmosphere that Baum Stadium brings to college baseball which is why it has been the host to five NCAA Regionals and a NCAA Super Regional.

Baum Stadium was one of the nation's best facilities when it was constructed, but since then, has undergone three renovations making it the envy of visiting teams. The first upgrade came prior to the 2003 season when the hitting and pitching cages were enclosed to ensure a place for Razorback players to practice year round. A total of 2,600 chair back seats were added to the park, 1,300 of which reside on each foul line.

Baum Stadium's second renovation came a year later as 12 luxury boxes, coaches' offices, a new scoreboard, and natural grass completely changed the feel of the park. A state-of-the-art scoreboard added full video, complete with a message center, and an analog clock was added to the right-center field gap, which stands 45-feet-high by 76-feet-wide. The original turf field of Baum Stadium's construction was torn out and rye grass was grown for the 2004 campaign, but replaced by a hybrid Bermuda in 2005. Part of the upgrades were made possible by contributions from the Willard and Pat Walker Charitable Foundation, Bob and Marilyn Bogle, the Pagnozzi Charities, John Tyson and Stan Ley.

The most recent major renovation to Baum Stadium came prior to the 2007 season as 20 luxury boxes were built, 1,000 chair back seats were added, restrooms constructed and the Hog Pen and picnic area expanded. A new ticket office, field lights and wall pads were added as well. The final set of upgrades to the park brought Baum Stadium's capacity to 10,737 seats with 8,237 of those coming from chair backs and 34 luxury boxes.

In the fall of 2011, future renovations to Baum Stadium were announced that will ensure that the stadium remains among the best in college baseball. Included in that is a baseball/track & field training facility, which will include a weight room, indoor batting cages and an indoor practice field. Future plans also call for luxury suites in left field and right field, a concourse that goes around the entire stadium, including a new center field entrance to the stadium and a new LED ribbon board.

The combination of the upgrades and a top 10 baseball team produced then-record attendance numbers throughout the 2007 season as Arkansas smashed its school record for the fourth straight year. The Razorbacks became the first team in NCAA history to average more than 8,000 tickets sold per game (8,069) as its attendance over 33 home games was 266,270. Arkansas also set a school record for actual attendance with 198,218 (6,007 per game) passing through the gates.

In 2007, the Razorbacks fans help set the school and then-Southeastern Conference three-game series attendance record in the May 4-6 weekend series against LSU, with 30,564 tickets sold.

In April 2009, Baum Stadium played host to its first-ever No. 1 vs. No. 1 battle when the Razorbacks took on Arizona State. In game two of the midweek series, 11,014 fans were in attendance while 11,434 tickets were sold. Both numbers were then-facility records, topping the previous mark of 10,581 fans to see Arkansas defeat LSU in 2007.

The two-game series against the Sun Devils brought 17,300 fans through the turnstiles, a Razorback midweek record, and the 19,776 tickets sold were also a midweek series highmark.

Arkansas set a new attendance standard at Baum Stadium during the 2010 season as a record 292,734 tickets were sold to see the Hogs. The Razorbacks finished second in the country in both total attendance and average attendance (7,704). In part because of the great fan support, Arkansas was selected as an NCAA Regional host for the fifth time in program history. The regional drew more than 40,000 fans and attendance averaged 5,276 fans over the eight games.

Razorback fans continued to pack Baum Stadium in 2011 as Arkansas had six of the 20 largest crowds in school history in terms of tickets sold last season. The UA set a new single-game attendance record on April 9, 2011, when 11,103 fans crammed into Baum Stadium to see the Razorbacks defeat LSU 4-3 on James McCann's walk-off three-run homer in the bottom of the ninth.

The superior attendance figures drawn to Baum Stadium allowed Fayetteville to host its third NCAA Regional in four years in 2007 and its fourth since 1999. Razorback fan support did not flounder as the regional was the best attended of all 16 sites, averaging 6,452 fans over its six games.

In 2004, Baum Stadium served as host to its second NCAA Regional and first NCAA Super Regional, drawing the largest total attendance in the nation for both events. The series-clinching win over Florida State drew 10,027 fans to Baum Stadium, eclipsing the previous night's record of 9,338, set less than 24 hours earlier. In all, a combined 58,138 attended the NCAA Regional and Super Regional during the 2004 season.

Arkansas' 2004 attendance numbers were no fluke as fans continued to pour into the ballpark. The 2005 and 2006 crowds continued to set records for both average paid and actual attendance. While the NCAA and SEC recognize tickets sold as their method of ranking schools, Arkansas keeps both actual patrons as well as paid attendance figures and have seen steady increases in both areas.

In an informal study by the Baton Rouge (La.) Advocate, Arkansas led the nation in actual attendance between 2004 and 2007 and was edged by LSU in 2008 by 20 fans as patrons returned to Baton Rouge's Alex Box Stadium in its final season.

Baum Stadium is the culmination of a vision that was possible only through the dedication of former Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn, former UA Athletics Director Frank Broyles, and the contributions of Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum families.

While the efforts of DeBriyn and Broyles have been instrumental in maintaining a state-of-the-art home for UA baseball since the original George Cole Field opened in 1975, it was the generosity of the Baums and Walkers that allowed Arkansas to abandon plans to renovate its former facility and replace it with a new standard in college baseball venues.

The support of the George Cole family has been an integral part of the program's growth since the former Razorback athlete, coach and athletics director donned the cardinal and white many years ago.

"Without the support of the Charlie Baum, Willard Walker and George Cole families, this wouldn't have been possible," DeBriyn said when Baum Stadium opened. "It's an incredible facility and there is not one like it anywhere in the country. There is no way to describe the excitement our players and coaches have when they take the field."

Representatives of all three families attended the groundbreaking ceremony on Oct. 12, 1994. Eighteen months later, Arkansas' Matt Carnes delivered Baum Stadium's first pitch to Auburn's Russell Whittenburg, completing the dream. The Razorbacks defeated the Auburn Tigers 9-2 in the stadium's inaugural contest.

14. 1999 - Arkansas hosts its first NCAA Regional at Baum Stadium, defeating Delaware in the opening round.

15. 1998 - Arkansas defeats Eastern Illinois, 16-0, to give Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn his 1,000th career win.

GEORGE COLE FIELD

Named for the late Razorback shortstop and athletics director, George Cole Field served as Arkansas' home field from 1975 until 1996.

With a capacity of 3,000, George Cole Field was located just north of John McDonnell Field.

When it opened in 1975, George Cole Field enabled the Razorbacks to leave the field at the Washington County Fairgrounds and move into an on-campus facility for the first time.

Setting the trend for Arkansas having the finest college baseball park in the nation, George Cole Field was one of the few with artificial turf.

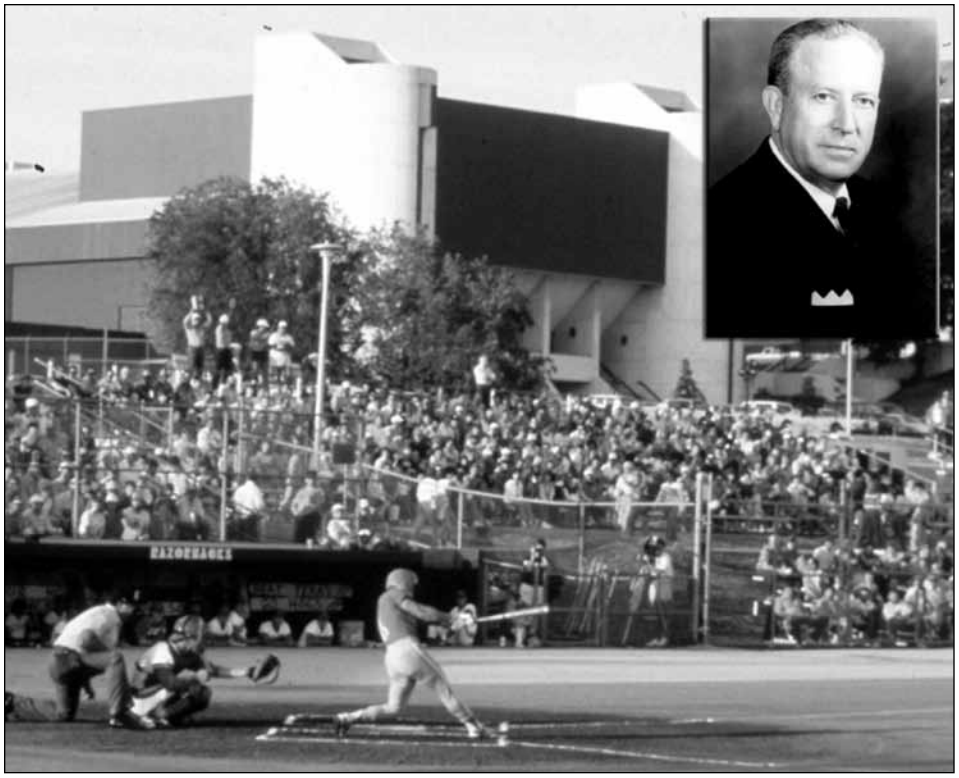

Donations from former Razorbacks Tim Lollar, Johnny Ray and Kevin McReynolds and their agent, Tom Selakovich, provided for the installation of lights at George Cole Field in 1985. On March 22 of that season, the Hogs defeated Southwest Conference rival Texas 5-4 in the first night baseball game on the Arkansas campus. Later that season, George Cole Field played host to the Southwest Conference Tournament for the first time. Arkansas defeated Texas 10-6 in the championship game to win its first - and still only - conference tournament title. The SWC tourney came to Fayetteville again in 1988.

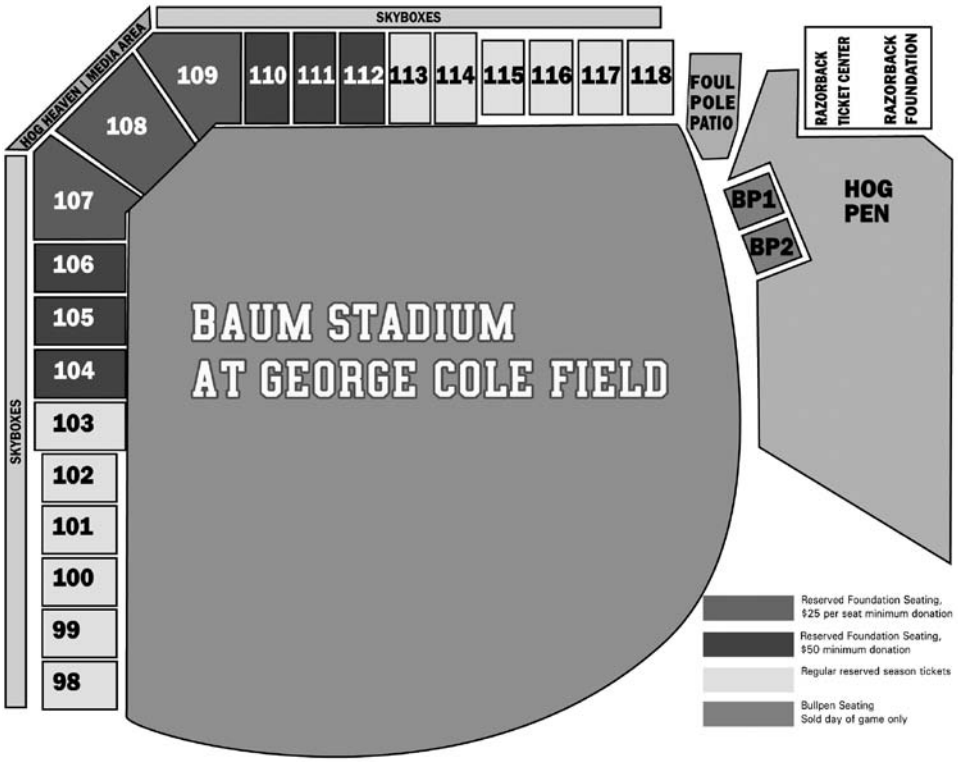

When the Razorbacks entered the Southeastern Conference in 1992, UA officials recognized the need to improve the school's baseball facility. While plans originally called for the improvement of George Cole Field, generous donations from the Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum families, along with former Razorback Tom Pagnozzi, enabled the Hogs to scrap the renovation plans and start from scratch with an entirely new state-of-the-art facility.

During its 21 seasons, George Cole Field was home to a number of future major-leaguers, including Pagnozzi, Ray, McReynolds, Lollar, Les Lancaster and Jeff King.

Although the original George Cole Field played host to its last game on March 31, 1995, as South Carolina defeated Arkansas 13-2, the spirit endures in the official name of the Razorbacks' current facility: Baum Stadium at George Cole Field.

A native of Bauxite, Ark., Cole served as athletics director from July 1, 1970, until his retirement on July 1, 1973. A former All-SWC quarterback for the Hogs, Cole scored a school-record 85 points as a senior in 1927. He began his administrative career at UA as a football line coach in 1936 and became an assistant athletics director under the legendary John Barnhill in 1957.

2011 REVIEW

RAZORBACKS WIN FOURTH SEC WEST TITLE

Arkansas swept a doubleheader from Ole Miss on the final day of the regular season to clinch the SEC Western Division championship. However, entering the final day of the season, the Razorbacks weren't even assured a berth in the SEC Tournament. After winning the first game of the twinbill against the Rebels, Arkansas had to win game two to make the eight-team conference tournament. An Arkansas comeback win in the late innings combined with losses by Alabama, Auburn and Mississippi State not only put the Razorbacks in the tournament, but gave the team the division title. Arkansas' SEC West crown was the program's fourth and its first since the 2007 season.

ARKANSAS EXTENDS NCAA TOURNAMENT STREAK TO 10

The Razorbacks extended their streak of NCAA Tournament appearances to 10 after being selected for the Tempe Regional hosted by Arizona State. After dropping the regional opener to Charlotte, Arkansas responded by winning their next two games, defeating New Mexico and downing Charlotte to advance to the regional championship game against host Arizona State. The Razorbacks' season came to an end with a loss to the Sun Devils. DJ Baxendale, Jarrod McKinney and Ryne Stanek were each named to the regional all-tournament team. Baxendale picked up a win in the elimination game against New Mexico, throwing eight shutout innings, scattering four hits and striking out seven. McKinney was one of the top offensive perfomers of the regional for Arkansas. McKinney went 8-for-15 (.533) at the plate with two RBI, three doubles, a triple and three runs scored. He had at least one hit in each game of the regional and had three multi-hit games. Stanek pitched Arkansas into the regional championship game by throwing the first complete game of his collegiate career in the win against Charlotte. Stanek allowed three runs, just two earned, on six hits while tying a career-high with six strikeouts.

THREE RAZORBACKS NAMED FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICANS

Arkansas freshmen Barrett Astin, Dominic Ficociello and Nolan Sanburn were recognized for their stellar rookie seasons by being named freshman All-Americans. Astin was recognized by Collegiate Baseball and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, while Ficociello was selected by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball, the NCBWA and Perfect Game. Sanburn was named a freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball. Astin appeared in a team-high 27 games, 24 in relief, in 2011 and finished with a 5-2 record and a 2.72 ERA. Astin played a major role in Arkansas winning the SEC West as he picked up the save in the first game of the doubleheader against Ole Miss and earned the win in the nightcap. Ficociello was one of the top freshman hitters in college baseball last season. The rookie infielder led the Razorbacks with a .335 batting average and 50 RBI. Ficociello also led the team with 75 hits, tying the Arkansas freshman single-season record. Sanburn served as the Arkansas closer for much of his freshman season. Sanburn, who was named to the midseason watch list for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award, pitched in 24 games and had a team-leading eight saves with a 2-4 record and a 3.62 ERA.

BAXENDALE ENJOYS BREAKOUT SEASON

DJ Baxendale developed into one of the top pitchers in college baseball in 2011. A native of Jacksonville, Ark., Baxendale finished his sophomore season with a 10-2 record, three saves and a 1.58 ERA in 19 appearances, including 12 starts. A semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award and second-team All-SEC selection, Baxendale ranked 10th nationally in ERA. Baxendale became the first Razorback to record double-digit wins in a season since Nick Schmidt in 2007 and posted the fifth-lowest ERA in program history. Baxendale saved some of his best outings for the best teams in the country. Baxendale picked up wins against the eventual national champion South Carolina, national runner up Florida and College World Series participant Vanderbilt. Not only did he beat those top teams, but he also beat them with their best pitcher on the mound. Baxendale bested staff aces Sonny Gray of Vanderbilt (12-4, 2.43), Hudson Randall of Florida (11-3, 2.17) and Michael Roth of South Carolina (14-3, 1.06).

SPEED RACERS

With home run numbers down throughout college baseball last season, Arkansas turned to another offensive weapon – the stolen base. The Razorbacks finished the season with 122 stolen bases in 149 attempts, leading the SEC and ranking sixth in the country. UA's stolen base total ranked as the sixth highest in school history and the most since the 1999 season when Arkansas swiped 136 stolen bases. Five Razorback players had double-digit stolen base totals, led by Tim Carver, who stole 24 bases. Collin Kuhn added 22 stolen bases, while Bo Bigham had 17 pilfers. Matt Reynolds added 16 stolen bases and James McCann contributed 11.

PUTTING UP ZEROS

Comprised of mostly freshmen and sophomores, the Arkansas pitching staff was one of the top units in college baseball last season. The Razorback pitching staff compiled a 3.20 ERA, which ranked 27th in the country. The team's 3.20 ERA was the eighth-best in school history and the best overall ERA since the 1982 team posted a 3.00 ERA. Arkansas finished the season 14th in hits allowed per nine innings, only surrendering 7.86 hits per game. Leading the UA pitching staff last season was the bullpen, which finished the season with a 20-8 record, a 2.51 ERA and a single-season school record 20 saves. The Arkansas bullpen accounted for 10 of the team's 15 wins in SEC play and also added seven saves in league competition.

FANS CONTINUE TO PACK BAUM STADIUM

For the seventh straight year, Arkansas finished in the top five nationally in attendance, ranking third in the country with an average attendance of 7,932 fans per game. Arkansas drew at least 8,000 fans for 10 home games and had three crowds of more than 10,000 fans. Arkansas had six of the 20 largest crowds in school history in terms of tickets sold last season, including a new single-game attendance record on April 9, 2011, when 11,103 fans saw Arkansas defeate LSU 4-3 on James McCann's walk-off three-run homer in the bottom of the ninth.

RAZORBACKS WELL REPRESENTED ON USA BASEBALL COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM

The Arkansas Razorback baseball team was well represented on this summer's USA Baseball Collegiate National Team. DJ Baxendale, Dominic Ficociello, Matt Reynolds and Ryne Stanek each played for the team, while Arkansas head coach Dave Van Horn served as an assistant coach for the squad. Team USA finished the summer with an 11-2-1 record with the Razorbacks playing an integral part in the team's success. Baxendale started three games for Team USA and compiled an 0-1 record with a 3.38 ERA. Baxendale struck out 12 batters in 13.1 innings and held opposing hitters to a .245 batting average. Ficociello finished the summer with a .283 batting average with nine RBI, seven runs scored and five stolen bases. Ficociello closed the summer on an eight-game hitting streak and had several key hits in Team USA's series victory against Japan. Reynolds joined Team USA for the final seven games of the team's schedule and played in six games, including five starts, and had a .227 batting average with two RBI and three stolen bases. Stanek was with Team USA for the early part of the team's schedule and appeared in two games, with one start, and had a 1-0 record with a 1.00 ERA. Stanek struck out 12 in nine innings of work.

Matt Reynolds played in six games and made five starts for Team USA last summer.

MCCANN NAMED SEC SCHOLAR-ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

James McCann was recognized for his work in the classroom by the SEC coaches by being named the league's Scholar-Athlete of the Year. McCann became the second Razorback to earn the honor, joining Brady Toops, who received the award in 2004. Through the 2011 spring semester, McCann had a 3.97 cumulative GPA while pursuing a degree in communication. On the field, McCann finished his junior season with a .306 batting average, six homers and 38 RBI. A semifinalist for the Johnny Bench Award, McCann committed just four errors last season and threw out 20 would-be base stealers.

BAXENDALE, FICOCIELLO EARN ALL-SEC HONORS

Arkansas pitcher DJ Baxendale and infielder Dominic Ficociello each earned All-SEC honors, as voted on by the league coaches. Baxendale was named second-team All-SEC, while Ficociello was selected for the All-SEC Freshman Team and the All-SEC Defensive Team. Ficociello became the first Arkansas freshman to be selected to the All-SEC Freshman Team since Dallas Keuchel in 2007 and the first Razorback player to be picked for the SEC All-Defensive Team since the league started naming the team in 2008.

BAXENDALE SELECTED TO SEC COMMUNITY SERVICE TEAM

DJ Baxendale was recognized for his work off the baseball field by being named to the SEC Baseball Community Service Team. A member of the Arkansas Student Athlete Advisory Committee, Baxendale has been actively involved in community service efforts with the baseball team. Baxendale has volunteered his time with community service projects such as the Sweat Hawgs program, the Book Hogs Read to Win program and the SEC Together We CAN food drive. Baxendale has also volunteered time with Big Brothers and Big Sisters.

SIX PLAYERS SELECTED IN 2011 MLB DRAFT

Arkansas had six players selected in the 2011 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Catcher James McCann was the first Arkansas player taken as he was drafted in the second round (76th overall) by the Detroit Tigers. Outfielder Collin Kuhn was picked in the 17th round (531st overall) by the Chicago White Sox, while left-handed pitcher Trent Daniel was a 23rd round (707th overall) selection of the Detroit Tigers. Infielder/outfielder Kyle Robinson was the fourth Arkansas player selected, going in the 28th round (861st overall) to the Chicago White Sox. Outfielder Jarrod McKinney was drafted in the 31st round (940th overall) by the Houston Astros, while left-handed pitcher Geoffrey Davenport was a 43rd round (1298th overall) selection of the Cleveland Indians.

2012 SEC TOURNAMENT
May 22-27, 2012
Regions Park • Hoover, Ala.

The Southeastern Conference Baseball Tournament returns for a 15th straight year to Regions Park in the south-Birmingham city of Hoover, Ala., May 22-27.

The SEC Tournament will begin in 2012 to follow a 10-team double elimination format that is modeled in a similar fashion to previous SEC Tournament and College World Series brackets. The tournament field includes the top teams from the SEC's Eastern and Western Divisions plus eight at-large bids based on conference winning percentage.

The 10 teams are seeded 1-10 with the two divisional champions guaranteed of the top two seeds and first-round byes. Games played from Tuesday to Friday are double elimination with single elimination starting on Saturday. Last season, Florida defeated Vanderbilt 5-0 in front of a national television audience on ESPN2 to claim the SEC Tournament title.

The 2011 SEC Baseball Tournament drew nearly 100,000 fans. Six times in the last nine years the tournament has surpassed the six-digit mark in total attendance. The 2010 event drew nearly 130,000 fans, an all-time record.

HISTORY & RECORDS

ARKANSAS BASEBALL HISTORY

Few schools in America enjoy as rich a history as that of the Arkansas Razorback baseball program. With six College World Series appearances - including a national runner-up finish in 1979 - and 24 NCAA postseason appearances to its credit, the University of Arkansas has long been considered one of the nation's elite programs.

Entering their 90th season of play, the Razorbacks fielded their first team in 1897. Arkansas played for 24 years before seeing its team discontinued from 1930 to 1946. Hugo Bezdek, E.T. Pickering, T.T. McConnell, Claude Watts, Norman Coyle and Francis Schmidt served as coaches during the early days of the program. All but Watts and Coyle also served as head football coaches at the University.

The Razorbacks got back in the baseball business again in 1947 with Deke Brackett serving the first of three seasons as head coach. It was in 1950, with Razorback athletic trainer Bill Ferrell taking the reins that modern-day interest in the sport ignited for the first time. Though compiling only a 139-149 record during his 16-year tenure, the foundation was laid for what was to come.

Wayne Robbins took over for the popular Ferrell in 1966 and coached for four seasons, going 50-51. His successor was a fiery young coach from Wisconsin who would eventually build the program into one of national prominence.

Norm DeBriyn was hired by Arkansas Athletics Director George Cole in 1970 and charged with making the Razorbacks competitive on a conference and national level. Arkansas baseball had not been a baseball-playing member of a league since dropping out of Southwest Conference play in 1926. One of DeBriyn's first tasks was to resume a SWC schedule, a feat which was accomplished in time for the 1974 season. His teams proved competitive in one of the nation's toughest baseball leagues and Arkansas would end up qualifying for 14 of the 15 SWC tournaments held during the Hogs' membership in that league.

The Razorbacks became competitive on a larger scale as well, under DeBriyn. Arkansas participated in its first NCAA postseason in 1973, DeBriyn's fourth season, and made its first trip to the NCAA College World Series in just his 10th campaign.

That trip to Omaha in 1979 saw the Hogs finish as national runners-up to Cal State-Fullerton.

In his final season as coach, DeBriyn guided the Hogs to an NCAA Super Regional after winning the Wichita Regional with a perfect 3-0 mark. The Razorbacks came within two runs of advancing to their fifth NCAA College World Series, losing the Super Regional two games to one to the host, Clemson.

A new chapter in Arkansas Baseball history began in 2003 when former Razorback player and graduate assistant coach Dave Van Horn was named head coach after DeBriyn retired following the 2002 season. Since taking over at his alma mater, Van Horn has continued to grow the Razorback program with nine straight NCAA Tournament berths, three Super Regional appearances and Arkansas' fifth and sixth trips to the College World Series in 2004 and 2009.

Facilities have played an important role in the history of Razorback baseball. Upon DeBriyn's arrival, the Razorbacks were playing games at the run-down and disheveled Washington County Fairgrounds field barely fit for pasture land. By 1975, Arkansas had moved into George Cole Field, one of the few college ballparks in the country with an artificial playing surface. The park gave the program immediate respectability and Arkansas would advance five times to NCAA postseason play and twice to the NCAA College World Series in its first decade in the park.

Lights were added in 1985 with the help of former standouts Kevin McReynolds, Johnny Ray and Tim Lollar, a move that again advanced the program up to another level.

George Cole Field was the site of the Razorback baseball program's coming of age. The Razorbacks would go 567-142-2 at the facility for a winning percentage of .799. It was the site of the school's first league tournament championship, in 1985, and home to a parade of all-conference and All-America players. McReynolds, Ray, Lollar and Tom Pagnozzi - some of the first Razorbacks to make a significant impact in Major League Baseball - were just a few of many DeBriyn pupils who honed their skills at George Cole Field and went on to excel in the majors.

Arkansas baseball is not just about those who have been able to play the game for a living. The Razorbacks have produced 90 all-conference selections (all since 1976 when Bill Montgomery was named All-Southwest Conference), 36 All-America picks (Lollar was the first in 1978), 55 all-conference tournament selections, four conference titles (1989, 1990, 1999, 2004), one conference tournament championship and eight NCAA Regional Tournament championships. Since joining the SEC in 1992, Arkansas has already placed 31 players on All-SEC lists. Adding all these feats to the fact that Arkansas baseball has seen 38 of its stars go on to play in the major leagues, has dozens currently playing professional baseball and claims six major league first-round draft picks in Kevin McReynolds (1981), Jeff King (1986), David Walling (1999), Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008) and Zack Cox (2010).

Although he retired following the 2002 season, the magic continues with DeBriyn's subtle influence on the lives of Charlie Baum and Willard & Pat Walker families, key contributors to perhaps the crowning achievement of DeBriyn's tenure - Baum Stadium at George Cole Field. The 8,237-seat stadium, which can accommodate a crowd of 10,737, is unparalleled in the country in form and function and promises again to move the program to an even higher level of achievement.

Designed by the nationally acclaimed firm HOK, designers of such jewels as Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Coors Field and Jacobs Field, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field played host to its first game on April 13, 1996, as a then-record crowd of 3,328 saw the Razorbacks defeat Auburn in a doubleheader sweep. Named the best college baseball facility in the nation by Baseball America in 1998, the stadium has ignited the interest of Razorback fans throughout the region and helped Arkansas lead the nation in tickets sold in 2007 with 8,069 per game and set a then-NCAA record in the process.

Many former Razorbacks have given something back to the program that helped propel them to the professional ranks, but none so much as the all-star catcher Pagnozzi. In addition to contributing the funds which made possible the Razorback clubhouse that bears his name, the annual Tom Pagnozzi Invitational Golf Tournament and surrounding events raise thousands of dollars each year for the Arkansas baseball program.

Memorable moments of Arkansas baseball vary with the observer. Arkansas' first NCAA postseason appearance in 1973 at Arlington Stadium in Arlington, Texas, will long be considered a watershed moment for DeBriyn's program. Though the Hogs lost two straight, it was a signal the program had arrived. Just six years later, the Razorbacks raced through the NCAA East Regional in Tallahassee, Fla., in four games to advance to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb., for the first time.

Three more wins in the then-true double elimination event put Arkansas in the championship game against Cal State-Fullerton. Fullerton, playing with one loss, won the first championship game,13-10, forcing a winner-take-all rematch. Fullerton won that one as well, 2-1, sending the disappointed Hogs home with the national runner-up trophy.

A third-place finish at the 1985 CWS also saw the Razorbacks go through Tallahassee and started a five-year stretch in which Arkansas advanced to Omaha three times, each time on an odd year. Fifth-place finishes in 1987 and 1989 were outstanding achievements for phenomenal teams.

Arkansas played host to its first Southwest Conference tournament in 1985, winning in three-straight games at George Cole Field with an opening win over Baylor and back-to-back victories over rival Texas. It was another example of facilities playing a role in the program's success - only the addition of lights that season enabled the school to snare the tournament host honor from traditional sites Texas and Texas A&M.

Memorable moments are hard to narrow to such a small space but would include some hard-to-forget home runs and pitching performances. Ralph Kraus ushered in the school's first home night game in classic style with a home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to defeat Texas before thousands in 1985. McReynolds will long be known for his towering shots both at George Cole Field and at the SWC Tournament at Texas A&M in 1980.

There have been 12 no-hitters in school history, the most recent by the combination of Nick Schmidt, Brian McLelland and Devin Collis in 2006. They blanked Oklahoma State to join former Razorbacks Rich Erwin (1976), David Rhodes (1977), Scott Glanz (1982), Tim Deitz (1983), Fred Faust (1984), Steve Parker (1986), Dennis Fletcher-Tim Sherrill-Tim Peters (1987), Brian Cook-Brian Dennison (1991), Todd Abbott (1994), Richie Nye (1996) and Scott Roehl (2001) as no-hit specialists. Steve Krueger recorded the Southwest Conference's lowest league ERA in 1979 and 1980.

Another Nye helped the Hogs make history again on the final day of the 1999 regular season. Rodney Nye homered in each of his first three trips to the plate to help the Razorbacks to a victory that gave UA its first SEC Western Division and overall titles.

Baum Stadium has already seen its share of memorable games in its short lifespan, such as the Hogs' 11-run rally to beat South Carolina 17-16 in 1998 and a 16-0 win over Eastern Illinois in which David Walling fanned 16 batters to help give Norm DeBriyn his 1,000th career victory.

In 1999, the Razorbacks took their home-field advantage to a new level, going 14-1 in home SEC games and ending the season with 13-consecutive conference victories at the facility. The solid play in home league games helped the Hogs earn division and overall league titles and brought an NCAA regional to the UA campus for the first time in school history.

In 2004, Arkansas duplicated the feat again earning a share of the SEC crown and topping the SEC West. Picked last in the division to begin the season, Van Horn guided this gritty bunch of Hogs to their second league title since joining the SEC. For their efforts, Arkansas earned a coveted national seed in the NCAA tournament draw and hosted its second regional in school history.

The Razorbacks hosted the largest attended NCAA regional as 38,773 fans packed Baum Stadium for the three-day event. Arkansas didn't disappoint, although it took a historic comeback to send the home crowd away happy. Down to its last out in an elimination game against Wichita State, Arkansas got a grand slam from junior catcher Brady Toops to complete an improbable 11-9 comeback win against Wichita State. Arkansas held off the Shockers, 4-3, in the regional final to secure the school's first-ever NCAA Super Regional.

The following weekend, Arkansas dominated No. 12 Florida State in a two-game sweep of the Seminoles televised nationally by ESPN. Razorback fans set a new NCAA record for super regional attendance at an on-campus venue drawing 9,338, on Friday and 10,027 on Saturday. With the 4-2 win on Saturday, Arkansas clinched its fifth College World Series berth.

Omaha did not prove as kind to the Hogs, as Arkansas dropped a pair of games to Texas and Arizona. Despite the quick exit, the improbable run of this underdog Razorback squad captured the imagination of UA fans everywhere laying the groundwork for even bigger and better things to come.

During the 2009 regular season, Arkansas earned its first-ever No. 1 ranking and defeated Arizona State in front of a then-Baum-record 11,014 fans in the facility's first matchup between top-ranked teams; the Sun Devils were also ranked No. 1 at the time.

In 2009, having swept through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, upsetting national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State, respectively, the Razorbacks earned their sixth trip to Omaha.

Arkansas split its first two games, besting Cal State Fullerton and then losing to LSU. The Hogs found themselves one out away from elimination against Virginia before Brett Eibner lifted a two-run shot to left field to tie the game. Arkansas went on to win the instant classic, 4-3, in 12 innings. The Razorbacks closed out the CWS with a tie for third place.

The Razorbacks advanced to the Super Regionals for the fourth time in school history in 2010. Arkansas was selected to host a regional for the fifth time in program history and took full advantage of playing at home, defeating Washington State, 7-2, in a winner-take-all regional final. The Hogs advanced to play top seed Arizona State in the Tempe Super Regional and gave the Sun Devils all they could handle over two thrilling 12-inning contests. Arizona State won game one, 7-6, before taking game two, 7-5, to eliminate Arkansas.

Arkansas won its fourth SEC Western Division title and continued its streak of NCAA Tournament appearances in 2011. The Razorbacks reached the championship game of the NCAA Tempe Regional before falling to Arizona State. Arkansas finished the season with a 40-22 record, marking the 17th 40-win season in program history and third-consecutive season of at least 40 wins for the Razorbacks.

A rich history with legendary players, coaches and games make Arkansas baseball a unique and treasured program. With Baum Stadium as a backdrop for the Razorbacks' continued competition in the toughest league in the nation, Arkansas baseball promises to bring fans many more great moments for many years to come.

MLB DRAFT PICKS

Key: Players selected in the June first-year player draft unless otherwise noted. Following the 1987 season there has only been one draft (June Draft). The first MLB Draft was held in 1965. Prior to 1965 players just signed professional contracts once their collegiate careers were over.

$ - Selected in January draft
% - Selected in June secondary draft
* - Played or plays in the Major Leagues
^ - Returned to school

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

Founded in 1871, the University of Arkansas is the flagship institution of the University of Arkansas System. Located in Fayetteville in Arkansas' northwest corner, the U of A is the state's foremost partner and resource for education and economic development.

The U of A offers 213 baccalaureate, master's, doctoral, professional and specialist degree programs. In keeping with its status as Arkansas' land-grant university, the U of A has a 140-year-old mandate to educate, to conduct basic and applied research, and to extend knowledge and resources to the people of Arkansas and beyond through public engagement and service. The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching recently classified the U of A as a national research university with a very high level of research activity, based on the number of doctoral degrees awarded, research grants received, and other factors. The U of A is the only Arkansas institution with such a ranking, and is among just 108 institutions in the United States (out of 4,633) to have received that classification.

The U of A has enormous influence over Arkansans' social, cultural, and recreational life, especially the widespread passion for the university's athletics teams, the Arkansas Razorbacks. The U of A's location in northwest Arkansas is viewed as one of the university's strongest attributes. Fayetteville is widely recognized as one of the best college communities in the U.S. The city's Dickson Street district abuts the U of A campus and features scores of restaurants, shops, and entertainment venues. Northwest Arkansas is a vibrant economic region with a national reputation for its high quality of life.

Three of the U.S.'s largest corporations have their world headquarters in the region: Tyson Foods, J.B. Hunt Transportation, and the world's largest retailer, Walmart Corp. Because of their presence, many other corporations have established primary or secondary headquarters in Northwest Arkansas. Their close proximity to the U of A campus, along with their executives' and employees' active involvement in university life, offers students and faculty exceptional opportunities for research partnerships, internships, and post-graduation employment.

OLD MAIN

One of the original buildings on Arkansas' campus, Old Main symbolizes the strong connection to the past and the focus upon the future which come together in the present at the University of Arkansas. Completed in 1875, Old Main stood the test of time until the mid-1980s when age and modern building codes threatened to send it to the wrecking ball as had happened to its sister building at the University of Illinois. A major fund-raising campaign by alumni totally renovated Old Main. Reopening in 1992, the building maintains the feel of a Victorian-era building with high ceilings and elaborate wooden trim. Just below the surface of the period hardwood floors, Old Main is hard-wired to the internet and built to last well into its second century.

Even with renovation, Old Main remained unfinished until 2005. One of the gifts during the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century specified the installation of a clock, originally planned for the blank faces of the south tower.

As mentioned, Old Main was built from shared plans with its counterpart on the Illinois campus, with one important difference. The north tower of Arkansas' Old Main is taller than the south tower. Legend says this was symbolic of the Civil War as the lead engineer was a northern veteran.

The U of A boasts one of the most unique features and traditions found on any college or university campus: Senior Walk, a nearly three-mile stretch of concrete sidewalks criss-crossing campus into which the names of every U of A graduate is engraved. More than 140,000 names currently appear, grouped alphabetically by year of graduation. Senior Walk epitomizes the university's emphasis on "putting students first," a philosophy captured in its tag line, "the YOU of A."

The U of A features distinctive architecture, including its signature building, Old Main, finished in 1875. As the original administrative facility, the iconic building now houses the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences. The college is named in honor of former U of A President (and, later, U.S. Senator) J. William Fulbright, who helped create the prestigious international scholarship and fellowship programs that bear his name. The U of A's distinctive Fulbright Peace Fountain, designed by architect Fay Jones, recognizes its namesake's role in promoting peaceful resolution of world conflicts.

Academically, the U of A is organized into ten schools and colleges: the Dale Bumpers College of Agricultural, Food and Life Sciences; the College of Education and Health Professions; the College of Engineering; the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences; and the Sam M. Walton College of Business. The university also features the Fay Jones School of Architecture, the Graduate School, the Honors College, the School of Law and the Global Campus, which provides academic outreach and programs to more than 15,000 learners a year.

The U of A's total annual operating budget for FY2011 is $528 million. Tuition and fee revenues make up the largest source of revenues, followed by an annual state appropriation. Almost 77 percent of all full-time undergraduate students receive some form of financial aid. U of A undergraduate tuition rates were ranked 38th lowest in the nation among land-grant universities, in keeping with the university's emphasis on keeping itself accessible and affordable.

In September 2010, the U of A enrolled a record 21,406 students. The student body consisted of students from all 50 states and more than 100 countries. More than 300 student organizations also exist on campus. There are plenty of things to do on- and off-campus. The HPER Center, the university's state-of-the-art recreational facility, offers a great place to climb, swim, run, lift weights, do aerobics and yoga, or play basketball. Cultural and recreational options include attending lectures, readings, and theatrical performances, shopping opportunities, and listening to live music on nearby Dickson Street.

In 2009, University Chancellor G. David Gearhart presented a long-range strategic plan that was formally endorsed by the elected leaders of the faculty, staff, and student body. The plan emphasizes a commitment to "students first," and outlines goals and strategies to ensure that all students receive the resources and support they need to achieve their academic goals. The plan also emphasizes the U of A's commitment to transparency and accountability to the people of Arkansas in its operation.

More information about the U of A may be found at www.uark.edu.

SENIOR WALK

The University of Arkansas is proud to be the last university in the nation maintaining what once was a common tradition of etching its graduates' names into the campus sidewalks. The 100,000th graduate's name went down in cement during the 1990s. The names on Senior Walk stretch over three miles of campus sidewalks.

The story of Senior Walk is a perfect example of how the University of Arkansas brings its commitment to the past together with innovations for the future. When the costs involved in hand-etching names into concrete forced numerous other universities to give up, the University of Arkansas turned to its physical plant and engineering school grads to create a one-of-a-kind computerized sandblasting machine -- the SandHog. Each summer, the SandHog roars across the front lawn of Old Main, etching the names of graduates into sidewalks.

CHANCELLOR DR. G. DAVID GEARHART

Dr. G. David Gearhart became the chancellor of the University of Arkansas on July 1, 2008, following 10 years of service to the university as vice chancellor for university advancement. Previously he was senior vice president of Penn State University, during which time he was named a Fulbright Scholar, studying at Oxford University in Oxford, England.

His Bachelor of Arts degree is from Westminster College in Missouri. Both his law degree and his doctor of education degree are from the University of Arkansas. He is a native of Fayetteville.

Prior to being appointed chancellor, Dr. Gearhart oversaw the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century, the most successful capital campaign in Arkansas history, which raised more than $1 billion for academic programs.

As chancellor, Dr. Gearhart instituted the first tuition freeze in 24 years and implemented a $220 million campus building renovation and refurbishment plan, as well as a campus-wide energy savings plan. He has also undertaken a renewed emphasis on the arts on campus, including the establishment of the "All Steinway Campus."

Dr. Gearhart has additionally implemented a major cost savings program that has already resulted in over $29.4 million in cost reduction and savings to the flagship campus. Campus enrollment has also grown by nearly 4,000 students in the past three years to almost 22,000 students. At the same time, diversity in the student body has increased significantly.

He and his wife of more than 35 years, Jane, have two children and two grandchildren.

FACULTY ATHLETIC REPRESENTATIVE DR. SHARON HUNT

Chancellor G. David Gearhart appointed Dr. Sharon Hunt to be the faculty athletics representative (FAR) for the University of Arkansas in August 2010.

Dr. Hunt is the first woman and non-lawyer to hold the post. Dr. Hunt has been on the University of Arkansas faculty for 21 years and has served as head of the recently renamed Department of Health, Human Performance and Recreation in the College of Education and Health Professions for that entire time except for the 2000-01 academic year, when she served as interim dean of the college. On June 30, 2011, Dr. Hunt stepped down as Department Head and returned to the faculty at the rank of Professor giving her more time to devote to the FAR position.

A high school athlete, Hunt's involvement with collegiate athletics dates back to her own college days at the University of Arkansas when she played extramural sports with the women's basketball and tennis teams prior to the enactment of Title IX.

After receiving her bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from the university, she went on to earn a doctor of education degree from the University of Georgia, where she taught a variety of sport-activity courses as a graduate assistant. Upon the completion of her doctoral degree, she joined the faculty of the University of Kentucky for 13 years, where she taught both undergraduate and graduate courses and served as the graduate coordinator for the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. In 1990, she and her family returned to Fayetteville.

The FAR's responsibilities lie in three broad areas: academic integrity within the athletics program, student-athlete well-being, and institutional control of the athletics program. Dr. Hunt is involved in the student-athlete advisory council on campus and chairs the Academic Credential Review Committee and Athletic's Academic Integrity Committee, and serves as an ex-officio member of the Faculty Athletics Committee. In addition, she travels to represent the University of Arkansas at various SEC and NCAA meetings.

Dr. Hunt was instrumental in establishing the graduate athletic training education program in the College of Education and Health Professions, and she has worked closely with athletics on that program. The athletics department provides support to students in the athletic training education program in the form of a stipend, books and travel to the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association annual meeting. Two endowed scholarships for athletic training students in honor of longtime Razorback trainers Dean Weber and the late Bill Ferrell were established through the athletics department.

Dr. Hunt has been married to David Hunt since 1973, and they have an adult son and daughter as well as a grandson.

VICE CHANCELLOR FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS JEFF LONG

Entering his fourth full year as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, Jeff Long has guided the University of Arkansas' Department of Intercollegiate Athletics through a period of unprecedented transition while revitalizing a tradition-rich athletics program encompassing 19 sports and more than 460 student-athletes.

Long leads a comprehensive athletics program uniformly committed to the development of student-athletes academically, athletically and socially. A part of Chancellor G. David Gearhart's Executive Committee, Long is helping to chart the course for the future of higher education at the University of Arkansas while integrating Razorback Athletics into the campus community. In each of the past two years, Razorback Athletics has made a $1 million gift to support the university's academic mission bringing the department's support of the greater university community to nearly $4 million.

In Long's tenure, Arkansas has captured eight conference championships and advanced to 53 post-season competitions, including the school's first Bowl Championship Series appearance in football, while drawing more than a million fans annually to campus to cheer on the Razorbacks. In 2010-11, Arkansas finished in the top 25 of the NACDA Sports Directors Cup for the third time in the past four years, marking the first time in school history that has been accomplished.

In the classroom, the Razorbacks continue to set new standards including posting a student-athlete grade point average exceeding 3.0 for an unprecedented third consecutive year. Arkansas exceeds the national APR multi-year rate by more than 10 points in 18 sports and has seen a steady rise in graduation success rates.

Student-athlete development has also been a priority including the establishment of the Razorback Leadership Academy, the first of its kind in the Southeastern Conference. In the community, Razorback student-athletes are more active than ever volunteering more than 3,300 hours of time for more than 80 agencies, organizations and schools.

Long was selected to replace legendary athletic director and former Razorback football coach Frank Broyles and even before he officially took the reins on Jan. 1, 2008, Arkansas announced that it would combine its previously independent men's and women's athletic programs into one combined athletic program. Long adeptly blended the men's and women's athletic departments into one unified department and established a new administrative structure.

He has recruited some of the nation's most successful coaches to Arkansas including head football coach Bobby Petrino and head men's basketball coach Mike Anderson. He also signed head baseball coach Dave Van Horn to a long-term deal to remain in Fayetteville. In fact, Arkansas is one of only four schools in the nation to boast coaches who have made a BCS bowl game, the Elite Eight and the College World Series.

Long has also worked tirelessly to maintain long-time relationships and to forge new relationships for the benefit of the Razorback program including extending Arkansas' relationship with War Memorial Stadium and helping re-establish the Razorbacks' presence in Texas, partnering with former Razorback Jerry Jones to develop the Southwest Classic, a 10-year football series with Texas A&M played at the spectacular Cowboys Stadium.

As economic indicators were beginning to point toward challenging economic times, Long signed Arkansas to a deal with IMG College to form Razorback Sports Properties that guarantees the Razorback program $73 million during the course of the decade-long agreement. Long also negotiated an extensive all sports apparel and footwear agreement with NIKE, Inc. that will outfit all 19 Razorback sports programs through the 2014-15 season.

Working alongside the Razorback Foundation leadership team, the athletic department recently launched the "Answer the Call" campaign to help meet the growing financial needs of fielding a nationally competitive all sports program. More than 2,600 new members have joined the Razorback Foundation while helping generate much needed support for Razorback student-athletes.

A number of athletic facilities have also seen a transformation with Bud Walton Arena undergoing extensive renovations, including replacement of the lower seating bowl and the addition of courtside seating, ribbon boards and a courtside club room. In the spring of 2009, a new synthetic playing surface was installed at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

With an eye towards the future, Long commissioned a master plan to assess the future facility needs of the program. Construction of a new football center is already underway with a targeted completion date in 2013.

A veteran administrator with a track record of the highest commitment to the concept of "student-athlete," Long has had more than two decades experience in athletic administration at the Division I level including at the University of Pittsburgh, University of Oklahoma, University of Michigan, Virginia Tech University, Eastern Kentucky University and Rice University. Long also understands the coach's perspective from time spent in coaching staff positions at Duke University, University of Michigan and North Carolina State University.

His experience as an athletic director and administrator in America's most prestigious conferences – the Big 12, Big Ten, Big East, Atlantic Coast and now SEC - gives Long a uniquely informed perspective on intercollegiate athletics. During his career, Long has served in five of the six Bowl Championship Series leagues.

On the forefront of NCAA governance, Long has served on the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA's Sports Wagering Task Force and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association. Long currently serves on the NCAA Championships\Sports Management Cabinet.

Prior to assuming his current roles at Arkansas, Long served for four years as the athletic director at the University of Pittsburgh. Long redefined Pitt athletics, most notably through the "Quest for Excellence" campaign that raised nearly $34 million to enhance the student-athlete experience. During his tenure the Panthers' were selected as the No. 17 overall program in the nation in the December 2006 Sports Illustrated on Campus' All-Sport Rankings.

Before arriving at Pitt, Long was senior associate athletic director at Oklahoma for two and a half years overseeing external affairs for the Sooners. In addition, Long was the primary administrator for the Sooners' highly successful football and men's basketball programs, along with sport supervision of baseball, wrestling and both golf teams.

Long's first appointment as a director of athletics was at Eastern Kentucky where he served for two and a half years. Prior to Eastern, Long had a brief stay with Virginia Tech as an associate athletics director.

He began his career in college athletic administration at Michigan, hired by legendary coach and athletics director, the late Bo Schembechler. During his seasons with the Wolverines, Long was promoted through a series of posts to the position of associate athletics director.

A former two-sport athlete at Ohio Wesleyan, Long earned seven varsity letters for the Bishops in football and baseball before completing his degree in economics in 1982. He started his post-graduate career in athletics working on head coach Tom Reed's staff as a graduate assistant football coach at the cradle of coaches, Miami University of Ohio. Long earned his master's in education at Miami in 1983, moving on to football staff positions at Rice, Duke and N.C. State prior to joining Michigan.

An Ohio native from Kettering, Long is married to the former Fanny Gellrich of Ann Arbor, Mich. The Longs have two daughters, Stephanie and Christina.

BEV LEWIS
ASSOCIATE VICE CHANCELLOR & EXECUTIVE ASSOCIATE AD

Bev Lewis has served the University of Arkansas and its Razorback athletic programs for more than three decades.

The former women's athletic director prior to the department merger in 2007-08, Lewis now serves as the associate vice chancellor and executive associate athletic director for administration and sport programs. Lewis is also the coordinator of a five-member sport administrator group that provides day-to-day administrative support for each of Arkansas' 19 sports. Lewis is the sport administrator for men's and women's cross country, men's and women's track and field, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, softball and volleyball. In addition, Lewis is the primary administrator working with the Razorbacks' strength and conditioning units and athletic training and sports medicine program as well as overseeing the media relations and new media divisions. She also serves as a liaison to the faculty senate and the faculty athletic committee, and coordinates the department's NCAA certification, Title IX compliance and strategic planning. Lewis was elected to the 2011-12 Southeastern Conference Executive Committee assisting the league office in a leadership role.

The largest portion of her service to the university was her 19-year tenure as the Director of Women's Athletics. As a result of her strong emphasis on the classroom, Razorback female student-athletes received numerous academic honors including national academic All-American of the year, team academic national titles and the university's first two SEC/H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

Her leadership was also a part of the success of the university's Campaign for the Twenty-First Century. Lewis directed Women's Athletics to over $11.5 million in direct support for women's teams. During the campaign, Lewis received one of her greatest personal honors as Bob and Marilyn Bogle requested that Arkansas' $6 million facility be named the Bev Lewis Center for Women's Athletics.

In 1998, she was voted into the University Of Arkansas Hall Of Honor by the university's letterwinners in recognition of her contributions both as a coach and an administrator.

Lewis served collegiate athletics at the highest level as an administrator, first with the NCAA Championship Cabinet and recently on the NCAA Management Council. Prior to assuming the duties of AD, Lewis was women's cross country and track coach. Her Arkansas coaching milestones included the first women's squad to achieve a national ranking and the first conference championship team with the 1988 Southwest Conference Cross Country Championships.

Lewis earned her bachelor's degree from Central Michigan in 1979 and followed it with her master's from Purdue prior to her arrival at Arkansas in 1981.

Her husband, Harley, is the former athletic director at the University of Montana, former assistant director of championships with the NCAA, and former development officer at Arkansas.

MATT TRANTHAM
SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD FOR INTERNAL OPERATIONS

Overseeing Razorback facilities, event management and equipment operations, Matt Trantham joined the University of Arkansas in 2008 as the senior associate athletic director for internal operations.

Supervising several major projects in his first year with the Razorbacks, Trantham guided the $2.5 million renovation of Bud Walton Arena and the $1.3 million restoration of synthetic playing surface at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback stadium in 2008-09.

This year, he is overseeing the Master Plan currently underway for all athletic facilities. One of the first projects within the master plan is scheduled to begin in the 2011-12 academic year with the expansion of the football practice facilities including meeting rooms, academic center and offices.

Prior to joining Arkansas, Trantham began his career with the University of Oklahoma in July 1999 as the promotions director for the athletic department where he worked with all 20 of OU's teams. He was named assistant athletic director for event management in 2004 and was promoted to associate athletic director in 2006.

In his role as associate AD for event management, Trantham oversaw more than 500 events a year, coordinated the efforts of more than 1,500 event staff members and was responsible for activities within 13 athletic facilities. He also served as OU's liaison with all postseason events including both Big 12 and NCAA championship competitions. Prior to joining the Sooners, Trantham spent five seasons in professional sports in Washington, D.C. Trantham earned his bachelor's of science degree in business management from Centenary College in 1990 and a master's degree in sports management from the United States Sports Academy in 1998.

Trantham and wife Kristen are parents of two sons, Will and Davis; and two daughters, Morgan and Paige.

JON FAGG
SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD FOR COMPLIANCE AND STUDENT-ATHLETE SERVICES

Jon Fagg joined the University of Arkansas as a senior associate athletic director for compliance and student-athlete services in the summer of 2008, overseeing all aspects of compliance and academics. He serves as a member of the senior management group for the Razorbacks.

Fagg supervises NCAA and Southeastern Conference rules compliance and education. He reports directly to the vice chancellor and director of athletics, and has an informational reporting relationship on compliance issues with the university's Office of the General Counsel.

In addition to compliance, Fagg also supervises the student-athlete services department which advises and offers support to more than 450 Razorback student-athletes.

Fagg joined the Razorback staff after spending the past seven years at North Carolina State. Hired in March 2001, he served four and half years as an assistant athletics director for compliance before being promoted to associate athletics director for compliance in the fall of 2005.

While with the Wolfpack, Fagg's responsibilities included coordinating all aspects of the NCAA compliance program, including rules education for intercollegiate staff and related university personnel, and advisement, education and interpretations regarding NCAA rules and regulations.

Prior to his tenure at North Carolina State, Fagg spent three years as the assistant athletics director for compliance at Fresno State. He also served one year as director of compliance for the Big South Conference.

His first athletics administrative experience came at Mars Hill College where he handled compliance duties as well as serving as an assistant coach for the football team for three seasons. His coaching experience also includes a stint as an assistant coach at Davidson from February 1992 to June 1993 and as a GA coach at his alma mater, the University of Arizona, from January 1991 to February 1992.

Fagg and his wife Amanda have three children: Jon Madison and twins, Reed and Ellie.

CHRIS WYRICK
SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD FOR DEVELOPMENT

Chris Wyrick joined the University of Arkansas in May 2008 and returns to the Athletic Department as a senior associate athletic director for development after spending the past year leading the highly successful Razorback Seat Value Plan (RSVP) as part of the Answer the Call Campaign for the Razorback Foundation. Wyrick's duties for Razorback Athletics include leading the capital gifts and major gift fund-raising efforts to support of the department's facilities master plan. He will continue to be the primary contact between Razorback Athletics and the Razorback Foundation. He also oversees the Razorback Ticket Office and serves as the liaison with Associated Student Government.

Prior to spending the past year assisting the Razorback Foundation, Wyrick served as the senior associate athletic director for external affairs, which included oversight for marketing and promotions, collegiate licensing program, media relations, multi-media partners and the athletic department web site. He also worked with the associate athletic director for finance and business in supervision of the Razorback Ticket Office while also serving as the sport administrator for men's basketball and men's and women's golf at Arkansas

In 2010, Wyrick served as the executive director of RSVP, or Razorback Seat Value Plan, working with the department to develop a plan that aligned fans' seat locations with their Razorback Foundation donor classifications. The year-long effort, which generated more than 2,600 members, encouraged fans to "Answer the Call" giving them the opportunity to select their football seat location.

A native of Greensboro, N.C., Wyrick joined Arkansas after two years at South Carolina where he was associate athletics director for development. Prior to USC, he spent six years at Vanderbilt as an administrator.

A 1992 graduate of North Carolina State with a degree in political science, Wyrick and his wife Merrily have two daughters, Caroline and Caitlin.

CLAYTON HAMILTON
Associate AD Chief Financial Officer

Clayton Hamilton joined the Razorbacks in January 2010, assuming the role of Chief Financial Officer with oversight of the department's financial affairs, business operations, and human resources. Hamilton has over 15 years of financial management experience, including stops at Colorado, Florida State, the Dallas Cowboys, and the Cleveland Cavaliers. He is an active member of the College Athletic Business Management Association, having most recently served as president in 2009, and has served on various NCAA strategic task forces. He is also a past recipient of the College Athletic Business Manager of the Year Award. A native of Arkansas, Hamilton graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He obtained a master's degree in sports management from the US Sports Academy in 1997, and his CPA certification from the State of Arkansas in 1998. Hamilton and his wife Stephanie have two children, Lauren and Caylee.

CHRIS POHL
Associate AD for Events

A former championships director for the NCAA, Chris Pohl joined Arkansas in 2002 to manage marketing and promotion for the women's sports after 11 years at the NCAA. Pohl moved into event management in 2008 and oversees the event management department which coordinates all home and postseason events for the Razorbacks. Her primary sport responsibilities include football, men's and women's basketball and swimming and diving. A 1981 graduate of Central Michigan and basketball letterwinner, she earned her master's in 1984 from Penn State.

BRIAN PRACHT
Associate AD for Marketing

Brian Pracht joined the Razorbacks in July 2010, with more than 15 years of collegiate marketing and promotions experience working at Wichita State, Long Beach State and the Southland Conference. His responsibilities at Arkansas include overseeing marketing, promotions, ticket sales, licensing, in addition to serving as the staff liaison with International Sports Properties (IMG College) and Razorback Sports Properties (RSP).

Pracht graduated in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in business administration from Emporia State in Kansas. He and his wife Amy have two daughters, Caroline and Lily.

TRACEY STEHLIK
Associate AD for Compliance

Starting her 28th year with the University of Arkansas, Tracey Stehlik serves as associate athletic director for compliance. In addition, Stehlik serves as the sport administrator for women's basketball, swimming and diving and men's and women's tennis. She began her career as an assistant women's basketball coach, and was a part of the staff that won the only women's hoops conference championships at Arkansas. Stehlik worked in a variety of administrative roles since leaving the court including compliance and game management. She and husband Wayne have two daughters, Mollie and Maggie.

KEVIN TRAINOR
Associate AD for Public Relations

Starting his 17th season at Arkansas, Kevin Trainor is in his fourth year as associate athletic director and his second as the department's Public Relations Director. He also serves as a sports administrator for baseball. Trainor was a nearly 20-year veteran in the media relations office before assuming his current role. A university graduate in journalism in 1994, he earned his master's at Arkansas in 2005. Trainor and his wife, the former Ruth Whitehead, are the parents of two daughters, Emma and Ellie.

JUSTIN MALAND
Assistant AD for Facilities

Justin Maland joined the Razorbacks in 1999 and is beginning his fifth year as an assistant AD for facilities in 2011. A Harrison, Ark., native and former college student-athlete, Maland oversees all competition and practice venues, offices and facility expansion for the Razorbacks. He is currently working on the Razorbacks' master plan for facilities which includes upcoming additions for football. Maland earned his master's in sports management from Arkansas in 2001. He is married to the former Sarah Parnell, and the Malands are the parents of two children, Macy and Jack.

ERIC A. WOOD
Assistant AD for Student-Athlete Development

Eric A. Wood joined the university in 2009 working to develop programs that contribute to the personal growth and character development of Razorback student-athletes. Wood worked in a similar role at the ACC and is the current chair of the NCAA Student-Athlete Affairs Advisory Committee. He also spent a year at Wake Forest and at the University of New Haven. Wood is a 1998 graduate of Sacred Heart University and was a three-year letterman in football. He earned his Master's Degree from Clemson in 2000. Wood and his wife Celia have a daughter, Eliana Jewel.

RAZORBACK SUPPORT SERVICES

ACADEMIC SERVICES

Recognizing the difficulty of balancing the demands of athletic competition at the highest level and completion of the rigorous academic standards of a Carnegie research-level university, the Razorback Athletic Department provides support services through both facilities and personnel to guide Arkansas student-athletes to their ultimate goal: University of Arkansas diploma.

The key components of the Student-Athlete Academic Support and Achievement (SAASA) are personal development, career development, academic tutoring, study hall facilities, class attendance monitoring and incentive awards recognizing academic achievement.

THE BOGLE ACADEMIC CENTER

There is no higher priority for the University of Arkansas Athletic Department than the academic progress of its scholar-athletes. Thanks to the generous gift of Bob and Marilyn Bogle, the home of the Razorback Athletic Department's Student-Athlete Academic Support and Achievement program is the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center. The 15,000-square foot Bogle Academic Center is located in the east side of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. Under the overall direction of Senior Associate Athletic Director Jon Fagg, the Bogle Academic Center houses the Arkansas Razorbacks Academic Support Program, the Razorback Office of Student Life and the Career Development Program.

Associate Athletic Director for Academics and Student-Athlete Development Eric Wood oversees the staff of professionals dedicated to directing student-athletes to reach their personal academic goals, and to do so in ways that balance their academic, athletic and personal lives.

STUDY HALL AND TUTORS

A quiet setting for uninterrupted study, the Bogle Academic Center provides three types of study hall space. The computer lab has more than 30 stations for individual computer-based study. An open study hall is available for group or individual study, and monitored by staff members of the SAASA. There are 17 individual study carrels that provide space for tutors to meet with student-athletes for individual instruction in specific subjects.

Each Razorback team sets its own criteria for study hall attendance. The use of tutors is a key element for academic success, allowing for individualized assistance and for reaching academic excellence in advanced subjects.

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

The mission of the Student-Athlete Development Office is to contribute to the personal growth and character development of Razorback student-athletes through holistic programming for success in life.

The Student-Athlete Development Office continues to expand its commitment to the offerings and opportunities in the following areas:

* Academic Excellence
* Athletic Excellence
* Career Development and Graduate School Preparation
* Community Service
* Personal Development
* Health and Wellness
* Leadership and Character Development
* Financial Planning

Our Goals

* Provide the resources to support the academic progress toward intellectual development and graduation for our student-athletes.
* Provide career development programs that will enable our student-athletes to develop and pursue career and life goals.
* Engage our student-athletes in experiences involving the university, local, state, national, and global communities through services.
* Support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle, decision-making skills, encouraging emotional well-being, and personal growth for our student-athletes.

RAZORBACK SUPPORT SERVICES

* Invest in the personal development of our student-athletes through various programs that enable them to be successful in the classroom, the community, and in their athletic activities.

The Student-Athlete Development Office coordinated more than 3,000 hours dedicated to service in Northwest Arkansas and worldwide. Razorback student-athletes worked with more than 80 agencies giving of their time and energy last season.

Razorback student-athletes took advantage of the Razorback Leadership Academy, the first of its kind in the SEC in 2010-11 as well. Student-athletes, coaches and staff were shown steps to become better leaders on their teams, in the classroom, in the workplace and in life.

Finally, student-athletes participated in Hogs in Transition, a program designed to help Razorbacks make the move to life after college and athletics. Student-athletes took part in career fairs, corporate office visits and interview training.

COMPLIANCE

The University of Arkansas Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is proud to have your interest and support in the Razorbacks. The Razorback Athletics Compliance Office works hard to educate its student-athletes, coaches, staff and boosters on the rules and regulations mandated by the Southeastern Conference and the NCAA.

SEC and NCAA rules and regulations can be complex, and every situation is different. The Razorback Compliance Office makes every effort to disseminate information, and they encourage student-athletes, coaches, staff and boosters to contact them if there are questions.

The Razorback Athletics Department is proud of your support of the Razorbacks, but we caution you that inadvertent actions by our fans may jeopardize the department, current student-athletes or potential student-athletes.

MARKETING

The excitement of the University of Arkansas athletic teams continues to grow each season in the Southeastern Conference. Razorback football began a new era under head coach Bobby Petrino. Basketball coaches Mike Anderson and Tom Collen are bringing great excitement to Bud Walton Arena. Razorback baseball has witnessed an explosion of fans at Baum Stadium.

State-of-the-art facilities, the nation's best coaches and players and the greatest fans in college athletics come together for some of the most exciting events that take place in the state of Arkansas.

The Razorback marketing staff is a big part of the behind-the-scenes success of all 19 teams at the university. They assist in the branding of our image, getting information to our fans and helping to fill our venues.

Their work is evident in our stadiums, on the scoreboards and during pre-event, halftime and post-events. They work with sponsors, maintain the department's Facebook page and welcome new fans with creative ticket and suite packages.

The Razorback Marketing Office also handles the department's licensing and trademark guidelines making sure the fans get the Razorback quality they have come to expect.

SPIRIT SQUAD

Along with being a Razorback, serving as a Razorback cheerleader has a long tradition at the University of Arkansas. Currently, the Razorbacks have two squads, a Red and White, that inspire the crowds at all home sporting events.

Arkansas also has a dance team, the Razorback Pom Squad, which performs at halftime of many events. Members of the Pom Squad also serve at baseball games as RBI Girls. Arkansas has a team of uniformed mascots, led by the original Big Red, the Fighting Razorback. Sue E. joined the family along with kid-sized Pork Chop in the late 1990s. Boss Hog is a 9-foot-tall inflatable mascot that rounds out the team.

Jean Nail serves as the coordinator for cheerleaders and mascots. She is assisted by Kraig Jimenez and Brooke Bailey. For more information on the cheer squads and tryouts, go to the Spirit Squad section of ArkansasRazorbacks.com.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Arkansas Sports Medicine staff is committed to provide each Razorback student-athlete with state-of-the-art medical care. The goal of our sports medicine program is to assist every student-athlete in staying healthy and injury free. The athletic training staff, in conjunction with our team physicians, will coordinate the delivery of professional and comprehensive preventative, treatment, rehabilitation, and counseling services.

RAZORBACK FOUNDATION, INC.

Performing the vital role of supporting the student-athletes at the University of Arkansas with financial support, the Razorback Foundation, Inc., is in its fourth decade of working alongside the athletic department to advance Razorback Athletics.

The goal of the foundation is ensuring that the more than 460 student-athletes at Arkansas have the equipment, facilities and overall support to achieve the goals of graduation and athletic achievement.

The Foundation embarked on a new campaign "Answer the Call" for the 2011 football season.

At the close of this campaign, approximately 2,600 new donors joined the Razorback Foundation. Every membership level saw an increase with a thirty percent increase in the top three classifications. The number of former letterwinners supporting the Razorback Foundation has grown to over 1,000, and with the recent hiring of head basketball coach Mike Anderson, membership numbers are expected to continue to increase.

The Foundation, officially incorporated and relocated off campus in 1988, has helped provide financial aid for the construction of the Broyles Athletic Center (football and administrative offices), Charlie Baum Stadium at George Cole Field (baseball), John McDonnell Field (outdoor track and field), Randal Tyson Track Center (indoor track and field), Dills Indoor Tennis Center, the George M. Billingsley Tennis Center (outdoor), Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium (football) and has already begun fundraising efforts for several of the Capital Campaign Master Plan facilities.

MISSION STATEMENT

The stated mission of the Razorback Foundation, Inc., is to support the athletic endeavors of the University of Arkansas Razorbacks.

The Foundation assists our student-athletes by providing for scholarships, facilities and various programs that enable them to realize their dreams of achieving a quality college education while participating in athletics on a nationally competitive level.

MEMBERSHIP LEVELS

The opportunity to participate in the annual fund giving to the Razorback Foundation, Inc., has several levels, beginning at the $50 Razorback level and continuing up to Broyles-Matthews Scholarship Platinum ($20,000 or more). For more information about levels of giving and benefits, please visit the foundation's website at RazorbackFoundation.com.

FRANK BROYLES

Athletic Director Emeritus

J. Frank Broyles and long-time assistant, Donita Ritchie, joined forces with the Razorback Foundation in 2008 and are instrumental in all facets of the fundraising process. Coach Broyles closed out a 50-year career of service to the university and now offers consultation and expertise for various fundraising opportunities, facility planning and donor relations.

Donita Ritchie
Admin. Asst. to Frank Broyles

The University of Arkansas Razorback Athletics Facilities Master Plan was announced in the fall of 2011. Included in the plan are expansions to Baum Stadium, which include the addition of luxury suites in left and right field, a concourse that goes around the entire stadium and a new center field entrance to the stadium.
